"We cannot venture to give so much as a guess at the extent of change which this discovery, if verified, must produce in the whole scheme of Scripture Prophecy hitherto in vogue; or, at the marvellous amount of light, it will throw over the political aspect of the present times." The Press, Nov. 16, 1861.

"If verified" "The surest and best characteristics of a well-founded and extensive induction is, when verifications of it spring up, as it were, spontaneously into notice, from quarters where they might be least expected; or, from among instances of that very kind, which were, at first, considered hostile. Evidence of this kind is irresistible, and compels assent with a weight that scarcely any other possesses." Sir J. Herschel, Nat. Phil. p. 170.

"Isaiah lv. 10. seems to enounce, as a Principle, that the Lord swears that no Prediction, or Oracle of His, shall fail of its Object, or of enlightening some in the very Age, for whose Use it was sent. If so, and no Person noted a Fulfilment of this in the last past century, we must conclude that it had no Fulfilment, and was not given for that Age." Wolff's Researches, 1835.
