Mr. GITTLESON, of the firm Gittleston & Silver-ston, general storekeepers at Alexandria, Ont., has apparently been attempting a little sharp practice with a Montreal wholesale firm, but has been securely caught in the trap of his own making. About the 30th May last Mr. Gittleston called on James A. Young & Co., boot and shoe manufacturers, this city, with whom he had been dealing satisfactorily for a couple of years, and not owing the firm anything at this time, and representing that his outstanding liabilities, not yet due, did not exceed $500, he obtained about $300 worth of goods on the usual credit terms. The goods were shipped on the 31st May, and on the 17th June inst. Mr.

Young received a letter from Gittleston, stating that, on account of having been sued for a larger amount than the firm could pay, they were obliged to make an assignment. Accordingly Gittleston came to this city on Monday last to meet his creditors, and on showing liabilities of some $4,500, due almost entirely in this city, was arrested and lodged in jail at the instance of Mr. Young, on the charge of having obtained goods under false pretences. He confessed a tained out of friendship by a creditor in this city, and offered 50c on the dollar, secured, but this the creditors declined until some estimate of the value of his stock could be obtained. A representative has been sent to Alexandria to take an inventory of the stock, etc.; and report, meanwhile the friends of the prisoner are settling the claim of Young & Co., and reconciling matters generally. The Alexandria firm commenced business some five or six years ago with a capital of only about $600.

Mr. T. C. PATTERSON, postmaster at Toronto, who has just returned from inspecting the New York postal system, believes Toronto should have more street letter boxes and more frequent collections, better facilities for sorting on trains, and free trade in the sale of postage stamps.
