

Sons of Temperance. He shall attend all meetings of the Grand Division, with the necessary writings under his control—and at each session present a report of the important transactions during the term, with the amount of money received, and from what sources. He shall also prepare the annual returns, in accordance with Part 10 of the Constitution of the National Division, and shall send to the National Division all documents referred to it.

R U L E I X.

The G. T. shall have charge of all the funds, property, security and vouchers of the Grand Division; and pay all orders drawn on him by the G. S., and countersigned by the G. W. P. He shall attend on the Grand Division, or its presiding officer, when required, with all necessary books and instruments relating to his office; he shall also meet with any Grand Committee, whose duty it may be to act in relation to the finances of the Grand Division. When going out of office, he shall immediately deliver to his successor in office, or to whomsoever shall be appointed to receive the same, all monies, securities, evidences of debt, books, writings, and property of the Grand Division which may be in his possession, or under his control, with all proper assignments. He shall render a full report at each session.

R U L E X.

The C. Chaplain shall attend the meetings of the Grand Division, and perform the duties of his office.

R U L E X I.

The G. Conductor shall introduce the Grand Officers at their installation, new members for initiation, and conduct the processions of the Grand Division. He shall have charge of all property not properly under control of either of the other officers. At the opening of the meeting he shall see the officers' badges in their proper places, and at the close, see them safely put away.