Baseball Rochester 4 Toronto 1 · Program Sports To-day · Chess Prizes Presented

Note and Comment

The Rochester Hustlers, three-time champions, made their first appearance of the year in Toronto yesterday, and they shaped up like the clean-up kids.

Manager Ganzel presented a nervous-looking youngster on the firing line, and the boss jollied the boy along until he finished in hurricane style, allowing only two hits after the second innings. He got himself in a hole that round, filling the bases, with no one out, but a double-play brought relief, and he stayed in, the displaying nervousness and an evident desire for the barn.

Walter Blair, back from the New York Highlanders, does not look the athlete he was two years ago, and his throwing was wild on a couple of occasions, but he backstopped in the same superb style and was there with the timely wallops.

The outfield, with Conroy and Lelivelt, the new faces, do not display any weakness, while the infield showed more in speed than anything seen here in some time.

The opener would have been a more even contest had Lush been able to scatter the hits, but he was continually in a hole and deserved to lose. However, a little thing might have changed the result. For instance, with Shaw at bat in the seventh, and the bases full, a timely double would have tied the score, but instead he struck out.

Many of the fans adjudged the visitors stronger than a year ago and with their long lead it will be a tough job to stop the Hustlers from landing four straight pennants.

Still Rochester may take a slump like the one that has been with the Torontos since the team left the south, where the press representatives watched exhibition games for more than a month and allowed that we would lose very few games this season.

Dope is of very little use in baseball. The Leafs may go out this afternoon and take both games of the double-header and thus delay going down close to the bottom until some time during the coming long trip on the road.

Torontos are entertaining Kennedy's newly organized Irish-Canadians this afternoon at the Beach with Tecumsehs going down at the National grounds. It thus looks like easy wins for the two home teams and thus opening up the gap. The pinch will come on July 6, when the boys in blue visit the French-Canadians in Montreal.

Canadian Team Leave Montreal Off to Sweden

The Ontario representatives on the Canadian Olympic team were given a royal send-off at the Union Station. They arrived in Montreal without mishap and all with the rest of the contingent this morning from Montreal. The team's address in Stockholm will be:

"Care of Canadian Team,
Poste Restante,
Stadium,
Stockholm."

Walter H. Ewing of Montreal, champion trap shooter of the world, is not going to Stockholm with the Canadian Olympic team. After waiting till the last moment, he announced that business reasons prevented him from going.

In the absence of Walter F. Trivett, who has gone with the Olympic team to Sweden, Fred G. Mara will act as secretary of the Ontario branch of the A.A.U. of C. Address, 206 Yonge street. Phone Adelaide 128.

Seagoers familiar with the steamer Finland were hardly able to recognize that liner when a big force of workmen had practically completed their work of transforming her into a transport for the American team bound for the Olympic games at Stockholm. The Finland is a veritable floating gymnasium. It has a running track, a swimming pool made of canvas, six feet deep. The Finland, with the team and its accompanying friends on board, sailed from New York on Friday.

BAIL AGAIN REFUSED.

Roy Robson, the chauffeur, whose car killed Victor Kettle on Hamptonave., on June 7 last, is still in jail pending a preliminary hearing on a charge of manslaughter. Bail has again been refused, and Robson must remain incarcerated until his case comes before the magistrate.

HUSTLERS GRAB FIRST OF SERIES

Leafs Are Downed 4 to 1 in Anything But Ideal Baseball Weather—International Scores.

"Jawn" Ganzel and his thrice-pennant-winning aggregation of Hustlers made their initial appearance on the local ball plot yesterday, and we regret to report that they were handed the verdict with a 4-to-1 score.

Our own Johnny Lush again drew a day of high gales to peddle his shoots and benders, and Johnny got the worst of it. The scrappy leaders touched Lush up for twelve safeties and four runs. Kiesper, a right-hander, was the Ganzel choice, and he went the route, handing out five safe connections to the tribe of McCaffery, along with one run.

The crew from the south shore pulled off three double-plays, much to the disgust of one Joe Kelley, and one of these came in the second innings, when the Leafs had every corner occupied.

Only one lone tally did the Braves of Kelley get, and that came in the first session. Benny Meyer, he of the noise, got on per Klepfer's kindness. The home-brew, Wm. O'Hara, skied out. Albert Shaw did what was needed, a double down the first-corner line, and in romped Mr. Meyer.

From this out the Leafs fought hard, but never once after this did Klepfer and the rest of the Hustlers let the local hired artists cross the pan.

Two singles and a middle-station clout scored the first for the league leaders in the second. The third brought in one more run for Rochester, and the fifth and sixth were one-run innings for Ganzel.

Kelley's men held their own, as far as the fielding honors were concerned, and the break in the luck went to Rochester.

At Chicago—Boston-Chicago game postponed on account of rain.

National League Scores.

At Brooklyn—Brooklyn won, 11 to 2, because Rucker was at his best and would have scored a shut-out but for a three-base muff by Wheat in the ninth. Bresnahan used four pitchers to stem the avalanche of base hits and passes, but only Dale, who finished out, had fair success. Wheat made four hits in as many times at bat. Score:

At Philadelphia—Chicago won a hard-fought game, 7 to 5. In the eighth innings a foul tip off Downey's bat broke Umpire Owens' ankle. He was carried off the field by players and sent to a hospital. The visitors won the game by bunching hits with battery and fielding mispiays in the sixth and seventh innings, during which Downs made a triple and a home run. Score:

London in a Swatfest Peterboro Are Beaten

At Peterboro—London batted three Peterboro pitchers hard yesterday and won by 17 to 4. Silcox was no puzzle after the fifth, but his support was glittered. Cocash had two home runs and Powell and Nicholls one each. The quartet brought eight runs. Manager Bowerman has signed Hartman, who was released by Tempilla. Score:

London	6	1	0	0	3	2	1	1	—	17	18	1

Batteries—Silcox and Speer; Tracy, Derr, Nyer and Trout.

At Brantford—Brantford fought an uphill battle all the way here yesterday and by a great ninth inning rally nosed Ottawa out by 10 to 9. Baker's wildness, coupled with two misplays in the second innings, resulted in Ottawa securing what looked like a safe lead. In the fifth, however, the Red Sox tied the score on Iver's double, triples by Coose and Burrill and a single by Elcock. The visitors went ahead again, however, in the seventh and ninth. Fine hitting by Burrill and Elcock featured the contest. Score:

										R.	H.	E.

Brantford	3	0	0	4	0	0	1	2	0	10	12	3

Batteries—Baker, Coose and Lamond; Draper, McManus and Rowe. Umpire—Phyle.

At Guelph—St. Thomas made their first appearance of the season here yesterday afternoon, when they lined up a badly crippled team against the hard hitting Leafs. The result was a regular slaughter, the score being 19 to 4, which constitutes a season's record in the Canadian League. The Leafs pounded the ball for 23 hits for a total of 35 bases. "Dad" Stewart went in the box himself in the sixth, but he was worse than Clement and the game resolved itself into a farce. On the other hand Schaffer pitched gilt-edge ball and allowed but four hits. The feature of the game was Dunn's terrific batting. He got two triples and three singles in five trips to the plate. Wright also hit the ball hard. The score: R.H.E.

Batteries—Clement, Stewart and Kiefel; Schaffer and Dunn.

At Berlin—Hamilton's contention that Berlin didn't have a ball team was easily put to rout yesterday when the Busy Bees put Knotty Lee's pets in the back ground so far as scoring runs was concerned, defeating them by a score of 10 to 4. Teed allowed five to walk in the eighth. Score:
