DISASTROUS FIRE NEAR PARKHIL

Mr. George Lavery's Residence Destroyed - Baby Perished --Mother Burned.

Parkhill, Oct. 1.-A fire occurred yesterday with very sad results, when the house of Mr. George Lavery, of the seventh concession, McGillivray, was burned to the ground and the 2year-old child of Mrs. Harris, of Nian gara Falls, perished in the flames. Mr. Lovery is an unmarried man, and his mother, 74 years of age, liver The old lady had been quite ill or late, and her daughter. Mrs. Harris, was assisting in caring for her. It seems that last night the family had been up for several hours waiting on the aged lady, and early in the morning the kitchen fire had been lighted with coal oil, the can being left nearby. The family then went back to bed, and in some way the fire caught the coal oil, setting the house on fire. Mr. Wm. Pumfrey, who was driving past, saw the house burning, and aroused the inmates, who escaped as applying to him either by letter or person- they were. Mrs. Harris was very badly burned but the baby could not be saved, notwithstanding heroic efforts on the part of those who had come to assist. Mr. John Emery, a neighbor, had his hand badly burned. All the contents of the house were destroyed. OVER 3.000 STUDENTS

> MR. KIPLING'S MOVEMENTS He and Mrs. Kipling Left Today on

Trip Across the Continent. Montreal, Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Rud-yard Kipling, who have been in the city since Friday, when they arrived from England on a holiday trip, left this morning on their trip across the continent.

Their plans are to return to Montreal within three weeks and to sail for home about the end of October. A party of prominent Montrealers, including Sir William Van Horne, Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, Principal Peterson, of Mc-Gill University, F. D. Monk, M.P., and Lady Hickson met the distinguished author

Marie Cahill, star of "Marrying Mary," will be seen here at the Grand tonight. Shortly after her "baby carriage days" she went upon the stage in the little Brooklyn theater, where Harley Merry, the famous scenic artist, was conducting a stock company, Miss Cahill announces with much pride that she "never spoke a piece," during her childhood, and that she was never precocious and never gained the reputation of being an infant phenomenon. Another distinguishing feature, and an unusual one, is that

extraordinary cast and chorus, will be seen at the Grand, Thursday evening, in the English musical success, "The Blue Moon," Harold Ellis, Percy Greenbanks, Paul Rubins and Howard but as the musical comedy was Americanized for the New York Casino, where it ran for a year with Mr. Powers, others have since had a hand in it. The final result is a show of familiar kind, the scene being laid in Burmah; The Blue Moon is the poetcal name given to a Burmese girl. This role is made somewhat secondary in order to keep James T. Powers in the center of the stage, the greater part of the time.
