Eight New Candidates Entered the Contest Yesterday

Read the Following Letters From Three Different Districts:

Harriston, June 26.
"Prize Contest Department, The London Advertiser:
"Dear Sirs,—I am sending in my nomination to enter into the contest. Please send me at once receipt books for taking subscriptions. I am going into this with all I can possibly put forth. Either make or bust as the saying is. I am,
"Yours truly,
"Lucknow, R. R. No. 5, June 25, 1917
"Advertiser, London, Ont.:
"Gentlemen,—I want to enter your contest, not saying I will win anything, but I am going to make a big try at winning one of the automobiles. Please find 100 coupons with my nomination blank. Do you think I have a chance in this district?
"Yours truly,
"As Lucknow is in District No. 8, and there are very few candidates, we would say you have every chance in the world of winning one of the big prizes in your district.—Contest Manager.]

POINTERS FOR CANDIDATES

The little list of pointers which follows is set forth for the guidance and welfare of the candidates who really are in earnest in their efforts for one of The Advertiser's nine automobiles or other prizes. We would advise you to clip out the list and paste it up where you can read it every night and morning and follow it to the "T".
A new subscriber to The Advertiser at $2.00 a year, will count 7,000 votes. A new subscriber to The Advertiser who pays two years in advance at $3.00 a year will count 15,000 votes. A new subscriber to The Advertiser who pays three years in advance at $3.00 a year will count 25,000 votes. A new subscriber to The Advertiser who pays four years in advance at $3.00 a year will count 40,000 votes. A new subscriber to The Advertiser who pays five years in advance at $3.00 a year, will count 50,000 votes.
Notes—All daily papers in Canada are being forced to increase the price of subscription owing to the rapidly increasing cost of paper, therefore we ask our candidates not to solicit subscriptions to The Advertiser longer than three years.

Candidates should advise their friends when paying their subscription to The Advertiser to be sure and ask for the ballot.
The contest will close at midnight, Saturday, August 25.
Pay no attention to the other candidates. The time you spend thinking about others might lose you a new subscriber.
The 15,000 extra vote ballot is given (only) for the first new daily subscriber to The Advertiser for a year or more in length turned in.
Don't sit idly by and watch someone else walk off with a prize that could just as well have been yours, if you had made the proper effort to secure it.
Don't let a day pass by without securing some subscription and votes. Remember, it will take votes to win the prizes.
People who pay back subscriptions will be allowed votes just the same as those who pay in advance.

Send in all your new subscriptions at once, so that The Advertiser may be started at once.
Mark all subscriptions, old or new, on receipts.
Cash must accompany second portion of receipt form. Otherwise certificates of ballot will not be allowed.
Certificates of ballot will be mailed to each candidate by return mail.
Where a person is taking another ballot, which is paid up for three, six or twelve months, a candidate may take their subscription to The Advertiser and date their votes. A new subscriber to the other paper expires.
Receipt books will be mailed immediately on request.
The subscription price of The Advertiser was raised to $3 per year on October 1, 1916.
If a person owes for The Advertiser, say, from October 1, 1915, he will owe $2 from October 1, 1915, to October 1, 1916, and then $3 per year from October 1, 1916.
If you have friends living in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia or the Maritime Provinces, the United States or any other part of the world, you are at liberty to solicit their subscriptions to The Advertiser.
A separate receipt must be made out for each subscription taken, whether new or old.
Money may be sent to The Advertiser by check, postoffice order or money order.
Make all orders for money payable to The London Advertiser Company.
