Controller Gives Figures To Show Building Costs Have Not Jumped as Imagined.

zens are beginning to call at architects offices in an effort to secure dwellings to rent. Real estate dealers report that tenantable houses cannot be secured at present. Why these conditions should exist is the question of the day.

Some are inclined to blame the cost of building, but this should not affect the industry, as according to figures given by a large contractor, the increase is not as great as one would imagine.

Comparative prices compiled by John Putherbough on a residence costing $8.600 a few years are show that the contract of the contractor of the increase is not as first visit to Clinton. # EXPECTED TODAY IN RAILWAY DISPUTE Sarnia, May 28.—Three London youth—named Norman Clark, aged 17, Joseph Ingram, aged 15, and Ben Jarvis, aged 12—were arrested by Grand Trunk detectives shortly after midnight for trespassing on the railway. They entered Sarnia via a side-door Pulman, and were picked up almost as soon as they dropped off. Clark claims to have come here to secure work on the boats. Ingram appeared in court here recently on a similar charge. All three were remanded for sentence, and left the courtroom with lips quivering and eyes almost overflowing. Their parents will be communicated with.

James Blow of Woodstock, appeared in police court today charged under the regulations of the military service act, with keeping in his employ three men liable to military service in Class I.

The charge against Blow was laid on information furnished by Major John Hirsch, assistant provost marshal for this military district. This is the first charge of its kind to be laid in this military district, and will establish a precedent for the military authorities in future charges which will follow.

The summons was served on Blow as a result of statements made in court by three young colored men, William and Harry Lewis and Walter Owens, who were arrested as defaulters. These young men, when arraigned in court on the charge of cilibra results. The board at Chatham re-examined young men, when arraigned in court the charge of falling to register sta the charge of failing to register, stated to the magistrate that they had not evaded the act, because of their desire to break the law, but had acted in good faith, and accepted the word of their employer that as long as they continued to work in the woods they would not be required to register. Take it internally, and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood, and completely and permanently drives it out of the system.

Miss Mary V. Chambers, Anagance Ridge, N. B., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for eczema. I had it when an infant, but it left me. Two years ago it came back. I used doctors' medicine, but it did good only while I used it. At last my face was nothing but a running sore. Saw in the paper what B. B. B. did for people. I took it, and today I am free from that terrible disease."
