"IV" SUMMER CAMP
WILL BE LOCATED
NEAR PORT BRUCEOpen To All Organized 'Teen
Age Girls in City.

It is possible that the Y. W. C. A. summer camp for "teen age" girls will be located at Port Bruce on Lake Erie about 20 miles east of Port Stanley. It is expected that this camp will be kept open all summer and conducted under the regular camp rules, with a camp program for the day. The girls will live in tents and will be in charge of their own affairs. For part advantage of a camp outing, the girls will be in charge of their own affairs. The girls who will be in charge of the camp will be in charge of their own affairs. The girls who will be in charge of the camp will be in charge of their own affairs.

UNIQUE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET
AT ASKIN ST. CHURCHRepresentatives From Other
South London Churches
Present.

The mother and daughter banquet held at the Askin Street Methodist Church last night was something entirely new in the city of London. With almost 200 present from various missionary organizations in the church, and representatives from other churches in London South, the affair was a big one indeed. These outside representatives were a mother and girl from each of the London South Churches. The object of the banquet was educational along missionary lines, and it is expected that through it many of the young and older women of the church will become more deeply interested in the missionary societies of the church.

The speaker for the occasion was Mrs. D. L. McCrae, president of the London Presbytery, whose subject was "The Future of Missionary Work," while the toast mistress was Mrs. Gordon Wright, an officer of the Dominion W. M. S. of the Methodist Church.

Quite a long toast list included the following names: "Our Missionaries," proposed by Mrs. James Brown, and replied to by Mrs. T. Hill, returned missionary from Africa; "Our Guests," proposed by Mrs. George Young, and responded to by Mrs. H. A. Sabine; "The Cradle Roll," proposed by Miss Winifred Dunn, and replied to by Mrs. A. V. Johnston; "Mission Circle," proposed by Miss Maudie Norris, and responded to by Mrs. W. N. Manning; "Women's Missionary Auxiliary," proposed by Mrs. John Cottam, district superintendent, and replied to by Mrs. Alexander Henderson.

Three interesting guests at the banquet were Mrs. R. Hill, returned missionary from South Africa; Miss Gowanlock from Japan, and Mrs. Burnell, returned from China. A great deal of the success of the banquet was due to Mrs. Charles, who arranged for the program, and Mrs. McMurtrie, who was general convener.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Jean McCrimmon is a guest in Toronto.

Mrs. E. A. Minnitt will receive for the first time on coming to London on Friday afternoon and evening of this week, and hereafter on the third Thursday of each month, at her home, 16 Victor street.

A great number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Nott, who passed through the city yesterday morning on their way to California, were present at the station to give them jolly greetings. Mrs. Nott (nee Jessie Love), and her husband will make their home in California.

The Irish tea held at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon was a very enjoyable event as well as a success financially. Irish flags, quaint little hats and pipes formed the decorative scheme of the room, while the tea table was decorated with brass and silver. The guests were received by the past matrons, Mrs. Kendal, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Rowland Munroe, while the worthy patron, Mrs. Lena Logan, and the worthy patron, Mrs. Bert Thomas, were conspicuous figures present. The music was furnished by the Roscoe Pockocke Orchestra.

The Senator Coffey Chapter I. O. O. E., are contemplating the giving of a bridge party in the near future. The sale of home-made cooking and candy was held in the George Robinson Memorial Church on Wednesday under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. A varied program was given in the church auditorium. Those taking part were: Miss A. Bentley, Mrs. B. Ashton, the Louth brothers, Miss Webb, Miss Edna Gray, Miss Dickenson and Ruth and Viola Leff. Rev. B. H. Robinson presided and gave an interesting sketch of St. Patrick, who, it is said, drove the snakes out of Ireland. The St. Patrick decorations were lovely. The shamrock and the sprigs of green things representing a veritable little emerald isle. The ladies realized about $25.

TURNER-FERRIER. Mrs. Turner-Ferrier were solemnized at Kitchener, when Miss Frances Louise Ferrier was married to J. Madison Turner of Newport, Va. The ceremony being performed by Rev. McLennan. The couple will reside at Newport, Va.

BRAZIER-MACDOUGALL. A quiet wedding took place at the Wellington street Methodist parsonage on Wednesday, March 17, the Rev.

Ashton, B. D., officiating, when Miss Annie J. MacDougall and Norman J. Brazier, both of London, were united in marriage. The young couple were unattended and after a brief honeymoon, will reside at 143 Waterloo street.

DUNCAN-PRESTON. The home of P. H. Preston, former editor of the Brantford Expositor, was today the scene of a pretty wedding, when Edna Byre, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Preston of Brantford, was united in marriage to Gordon A. Duncan, manager of the Southern Ontario Securities Corporation. Rev. H. D. Christie, brother-in-law of the bride, officiated. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Harvey Watt of Brantford, best man, and Miss Kathleen Christie, niece of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Helen Chapman and Donald Waterous, both of Brantford, acted as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan left for New York on the evening train, and on their return will reside for the present at 112 Dufferin avenue.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

[Copyright, 1920, by the Wheeler
Syndicate, Inc.]

The quaint name of Sadie, lately spelled Sadye, has its origin with Sarah, a name of Hebrew origin meaning to fight or rule, and hence came to signify "princess." The first record of the use of Sarah or Sara belongs to Bible history, where the wife of Abraham was so-called.

Sadie came into existence through the Irish—unless one cares to believe that she is only an Americanization of one of Sarah's many diminutives. But for the sake of etymological exactness it is nicer to believe that the Irish Saddyb was the real forerunner of Sadie.

But between the time of Abraham's wife and the appearance of the Irish version of her name, Sarah had been adopted by other peoples, and had won great popularity. In England Sara Beauchamp gave it vogue in the reign of Edward I., and Sara de Moulton, who lived in a former reign, was also supposed to possess a name which was another and favorite form of Sarah.

The French preferred Sara without the "h," and still continue in great vogue there. They have another form, Sarette, which is also popular. Ireland's Saddyb and America's Sadie are apparently the only other existing forms.

Sadie has a curious talismanic gem—malachite. If it is engraved with an image of the sun it will bring her peace, freedom from danger and long life, and sound sleep. It is particularly lucky for children, and it is said that the piece of malachite tied to a child's cradle will protect it from dangers throughout later life. Saturday is Sadie's lucky day and 7 her lucky number.

Waist 3025, Skirt 3008.

A simple but attractive costume is here developed from Waist Pattern 3025 and Skirt Pattern 3008. As here shown the costume was used in dark brown with vest and collar trimmed in white. In a lighter shade. Black velvet combined with black satin, and touched with a bit of red, would make a very nice dress for the evening. The waist is cut in 8 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches, bust measure. The skirt is 7 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inches, waist measure. To make this attractive style for a medium size, will require 5 1/2 yards of 44-inch material. Width of skirt at lower edge is about 1 1/2 yards.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 15c FOR EACH pattern in silver or 1c and 2c stamps.
