"The Government refused to accept an amendment presented by Liberals, and even by its own supporters. This would have been inserted as a proviso which would prevent the creation of new offences. The Government replied that it wanted carte blanche, and that anything could be made an offence in Ireland, even though such action would not be an offence in the criminal code of any land in the world. Finally, the Government refused every amendment to define the duration of the act—it is forever and ever.

"Mark the contrast. On Thursday night Premier Lloyd George postponed real Irish liberty to an indefinite date; on Friday he gave Ireland coercion for all time. This is a policy which I have again and again declared in the House of Commons was coupled with vacillation and divided counsels. The rebel movement led by Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, and the grovelling servitude of the premier to Sir Edward are mainly responsible for the chaos and anarchy which prevails in Ireland today."

SAND FLIES BY MILLIONS AT PORT STANLEY

Egypt with her plague of locusts had nothing on Port Stanley Saturday evening with her countless millions of sand-flies that literally swept over the files that literally swept over the village in clouds. Some refreshment booths and amusement enterprises were forced to suspend business after 9 o'clock owing to the pests. The sudden warm wave of the past few days is believed to be responsible. The epidemic of sandfiles is only short-lived and the worst will be over in a few days more, is the prevailing opinion at Port.

third bandit, who is supposed to have been hiding near, got into the battle, and is reported wounded. He and Arkloff met together somewhere in the streets of the village and made their way towards the Frank Slide.

An inquest was held at Bellevue on Saturday night. The remains of the bandit who was killed were identified as those of George Akroff by members of the C. P. R. train crew which was held up. The jury found that Corp. Ussher and Constable Bailey had come to their death while in the discharge of their duty as a result of revolver shots at the hands of unidentified bandits, who had escaped. Constable Frewin was exonerated of all blame in shooting Arkoff, and was highly commended for his action. Constable Bailey is a member of a well-known MacLeed. Save Half a Million.

Mr. Melghen, in reply, explained that when the matter had been finally considered by the Government none of the organizations asking for postponement of the vote, the Liberty League included, had suggested postponement beyond the latter part of January. The Government had decided that if there was to be a postponement the date selected should be one which would mean the saving of the half million dollars involved. "We resisted the suggestion that the vote should be taken in January," he said, "on the ground of saving unnecessary expenditure."

Cilents Claim Losses When Real Estate Thousands of Dollars Worth of Whiskey Seized in Saskatchewan.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

KITCHENER, Aug. 8.—No trace of Charles G. Pritzchau, the missing Kitchener real estate man, has been found. Many hold to the opinion that he has sailed for Germany. The latest development in the case is the issuing of a warrant against him by Roy Kleinschmidt, the owner of a local garage, who charges him with obtaining goods under false pretences. It is claimed by clients that they will be out considerably unless Pritzchau returns. Among them are farmers and workingmen. Estimates on the indebtedness of Pritzchau vary. The general claim is that it will be anywhere from $20,000 to $40,000. Philip Goldberg of Toronto Victim of Unknown Fiend.

TORONTO. Aug. 8.—Philip Goldberg, a lad of eight years or age, was found dying from knife wounds late Saturday afternoon in a field near High Park, at the west end of the city, and was dead before medical assistance could be secured. His throat was cut almost from ear to ear, and there were two cuts on his head. Dr. J. E. Rowe, who sarrived on the scene soon after the boy died, pronounced it a case of murder, probably following maltreatment by a degenerate.

Young Goldberg had left his home, 112 McCaul street, to attend a moving picture show, and it was more than four hours later that Robert McMurty, hurrying across a vacant lot, found him in a dying condition. He presumed the child had fallen from a lofty billboard, and as he ran off for a doctor requested a stranger whom he met to stay by the body. This person consented to do so, but when McMurty and Dr. Rowe returned the body was unguarded.

The police have made no arrests as yet, but the man accosted by McMurty is being looked for.
