Brockville Rowing Club.

BROCK ville. Sept. 22.—The Brockville Rowing Club has just closed a successful year, and at an enthusiastic annual meeting the reports gave splendid satisfaction. The receipts totalled in the neighborhood of $2000, and the largest litem of expenditure was the sending of crews to the Canadian Henley. The principal officers elected were: President, F. I. Ritchie; first vice-president, B. White; second vice-president, Dr. P. Shirriff; secretary-treasurer, L. C. Dargavel; captain, A. O. Donahoe.

Judge McDonald, who was at Henley during the Pan-Anglican Congress, presented the cups for the spring regatta, and in speaking of athletics depiored the bitter feeling which some decisions in the Olympic games engendered. He experiments and the olympic track events. Brockville Rowing Club.
