REAT CONSTERNATION has overtaken the Suits and Dresses of our Summer stock. An indignant protest has gone up. Intruding arrivals have broken the prices at which self-respecting fashionable costumes are accustomed to seeing themselves marked and sold. A "special purchase" has arrived. We have some of the very same for the cab." Thus spoke Rev. Canon Dixon in Massey Hall yesterday afternoon, when addressing about 2000 members of the Orange Order, and nearly as many of their friends. Of the many friends who accompanied the Orangemen to divine service, a large number were ladies who were members of the La-dies' Orange Association and the Lady True Blues. Simpson's Time, Table

All the Odd Balances of Our Famous Dollar 79c Shirts Tuesday

YJELL, the month's selling of Simpson's One-Dollar Shirts ends at 5.30 to-night. While we did not quite hit the schedule figures during the last week, still we had set a pretty high figure, and we are not altogether surprised. We aimed high-higher than we expected to reachthough no higher than we tried to reach. On the whole we are well satisfied. We have made 10,000 shirts look mighty small. Now, Tuesday we are going to clear up the remainder. We have about 1200 shirts which, after the four weeks' campaign, represent the "pieces." Patterns and sizes are not completely ranged.
