MAJORITY CLERICS FAVOR HEALER

Salvation Army Warmly Approves Healing of Sick at St. James'

No matter what else J. M. Hickson's mission might have accomplished, it has certainly opened up a more intelligent controversy on spiritual matters than has taken place in Toronto for some time. Mr. Hickson is in the city at the invitation of the Anglican Bishop of Toronto and, both Right Rev. J. F. Sweeney and Right Rev. W. D. Beeve, signify their approval and sympathy by allowing St. James' Cathedral to be used for the services.

The clergy of other denominations are also, for the most part, favorable. The Salvation Army was asked by The World yesterday, for its views on the matter, and Robert Sandall, editor of the Salvation Army Journal, "The War Cry" spoke with warm approval. The opinions of two Baptist clergymen were asked and it is impossible to judge the general stand of this denomination as the opinions do not agree. Rev. Moses Purser, pastor of the First Baptist Church (corner), said that his congregation was quite excited about the matter. "We have been trying to get into touch with Mr. Hickson, but more attention should be given to matters of this kind. A vital point to understand is that the patient must be in a state of health. As much depends on the character of the disease, such as consumption, or say, lupus, Mr. Hickson might have cured slight neurotic troubles, but there is a difference in cases of this sort, between those who are cured by hypnosis or suggestion."

Such cures can be effected, continued Mr. Graham, "without faith in God. Mr. Hickson would gain far more sympathy if he could point to one whose body and soul, that man suffered from lupus and I cured him by faith."

Capt. J. Tupper, the "Fighting Parson," editor of the G.A.U.V. Journal, The Veteran, told The World that he believes absolutely in Mr. Hickson and his principles. "Mr. Hickson differs from Christian Scientists," said Capt. Tupper, "in that he recognizes that disease exists, and believes the mind has a very complete mastery over the body. Their bodily ill can be set right by the mind if the latter is to a correct condition." "Some of us go to the services," continued Capt. Tupper, "will probably remain sceptics as they will come out at the church apparently the same as they were when they went in. The healing does not take place instantly, but is a gradual process and requires months to bring our results. The great thing is to get the body in tune with the mind. Mr. Hickson seeks to improve the body by improving the mind and so bringing the two into tune and harmony."

Dr. J. Hunter Disapproves. The medical profession is strangely silent on the matter, the only definite statement having come from Dr. John Hunter of the board of education. Writing to The World a few days ago, Dr. Hunter stated that "a comparison—however absurd and ludicrous the suggestion may seem to physicians—between the methods used in scientific medicine and those used by the 'cult,' popularly known as faith healing, would convince any sane person that it would be impossible to have any 'sympathetic action' between the two. "Go into the hospitals," continued Dr. Hunter, "take the victims of the most virulent forms of organic diseases, and wherever you find a cure the proof both in regard to the nature of the disease and of the results is given to the world. When a patient fails, the specialists do not seek to camouflage the failure, as the healer does by his saying: 'God may wish you to remain sick.'"

Women's Views. That thinking women are impressed differently by the work of J. M. Hickson, the reputed healer from England, who is operating at St. James' Cathedral, is seen by the expressions given by the women of the board of education. The World by representatives from different sections of the community, "I am very much interested," said Mrs. John Bruce, prominent member of the I.O.D.E., "in the work of J. M. Hickson. I know too, of a clergyman of my town who had a service this morning to show his co-operation with what Mr. Hickson is doing in Toronto. "That's an awful question," was the answer of Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, chairman of the board of management of the Women's College Hospital. "I firmly believe in the power of prayer, but I have not heard Mr. Hickson myself. I understand that there were tickets for none except those who were sick or for their friends who wish to take help to them. I have a friend, however, who came under Mr. Hickson's influence in California. She was a very spiritual woman herself," was the comment of the narrator.

There's only one opinion in my mind," said Dr. Id. Lof, "is only those who have no organic disease, that will say they have been benefited. I have seen this tried by people of all sorts, by Christian Scientists and others. Our prayers, too, may be just as strong as his. We do not require his help or that of anyone else," was the opinion given.

FATAL JITNEY ACCIDENT.
The first fatal accident occurred when a "jitney" struck a car, struck occupied last night when Tony Floyd, aged 23 years, of 15 E. King St., was killed at St. Michael's Hospital. Floyd was struck down at the corner of Queen and Jarvis streets, Wednesday night by a jitney. He was injured about the head and had one rib broken. His condition was guarded as critical, but yesterday he took a turn for the worse and died last night. The body will be removed to the morgue and an inquest held.

"We are satisfied that were we to attempt to operate the cars at the present time, the same results, if not worse, would follow. In view of this I beg to notify you that the company is prepared to operate a service immediately upon your assurance that efficient protection will be given to the company so that the lives of its employes and its property will not be endangered."

Conductor Drove Jitney.
"Gee, isn't it the limit," quoth a passenger in one of Toronto's jitney during cars last night as it made its way gingerly thru the long lines and double lines of cars of all descriptions from Bloor to Yonge. "This morning I got into a jitney and 'o' dye believe I was runnin' the blomin' show? Why, the blame con as carries me to me bed every night in the cars. Sure enough I was be runnin' a jitney car. Said he was 'hakin' quite a pile out of the same."

W.C.T.U. PRESIDENT SCORES GOVERNMENT

Mrs. W. T. Hendry Hits Out Regarding Liquor Importation Policy.

Hamilton, June 24.—Deploping the policy of the government regarding the importation of liquor, and denouncing the law-breakers and more especially the men of the medical profession who issue liquor scripts by the wholesale, Mrs. W. J. Hendry, president Wentworth and Halton W.C.T.U., in delivering her presidential address at the annual convention in Ryerson Methodist Church today, declared that the taking in of money in fines for liquor offences was nothing more nor less than a loss of prestige. ULSTER VETERANS OFFER TO SERVE Government Carefully Considering Offer of Three Thousand Men and Officers.

London, June 24.—A possible new policy of dealing with the Irish situation was foreshadowed today when the attorney-general for Ireland told the house of commons that the government had received an offer of the services of 3,000 officers and men from the Ulster ex-service men's association, and added that the offer was being carefully considered.

The English Liberal newspapers have had rumors that such a step was under consideration, and have expressed the view that it would greatly inflame Irish animosity. The soldiers employed in Ireland thus far have been recruited from the British side of the channel, and it was commented that the use of soldiers from one Irish faction might result in a step toward civil war.

GREEKS ATTACK TURKISH FORCES

Operations Are Officially Reported to be Proceeding Successfully.

Smyrna, Asia Minor, June 23.—The Greek army has begun an offensive against the forces of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, according to an official statement issued by Greek army headquarters today.

"The offensive of the Greek army against the forces of Mustafa Kemal Pasha began June 21," says the official statement. "The operations are proceeding successfully. The enemy, concentrated in the vicinity of Ak-Hisar (58 miles northeast of Smyrna), was attacked both in front and flank movements. He withdrew in disorder, and Ak-Hisar was occupied by our troops. Last night we continued the advance northward. An attack against Salihli began today."

POLICE CAN HANDLE STRIKE SITUATION
"Give us the men and we can handle any situation," stated Deputy Chief Geddes, when asked by The World his views of traffic conditions. Mr. Geddes stated the department was waiting in readiness to hear from the street railway company in the event of an attempt being made to run street cars driven by strike-breakers. It is the opinion of the deputy that there are sufficient policemen to protect the cars, and if word is received that cars are to be operated all men will have their weekly day off denied them until the situation is cleared up.

POLICE HOLIDAY CANCELLED.
Police orders were issued yesterday cancelling all days off and holidays until further notice. This step was taken in order to have a sufficient force on hand to deal with situations which might arise out of the T.S.R. strike.
