

PERSONALITIES AND EVENTS IN THE NEWS FROM OTHER PLACES

CURIOUS CHAPERONES OF EUROPEAN WOMEN. ABOVE A ROUMANIAN NOBLEWOMAN IN PARIS WITH HER LEOPARD, BELOW A LONDONER AND A PET MONKEY

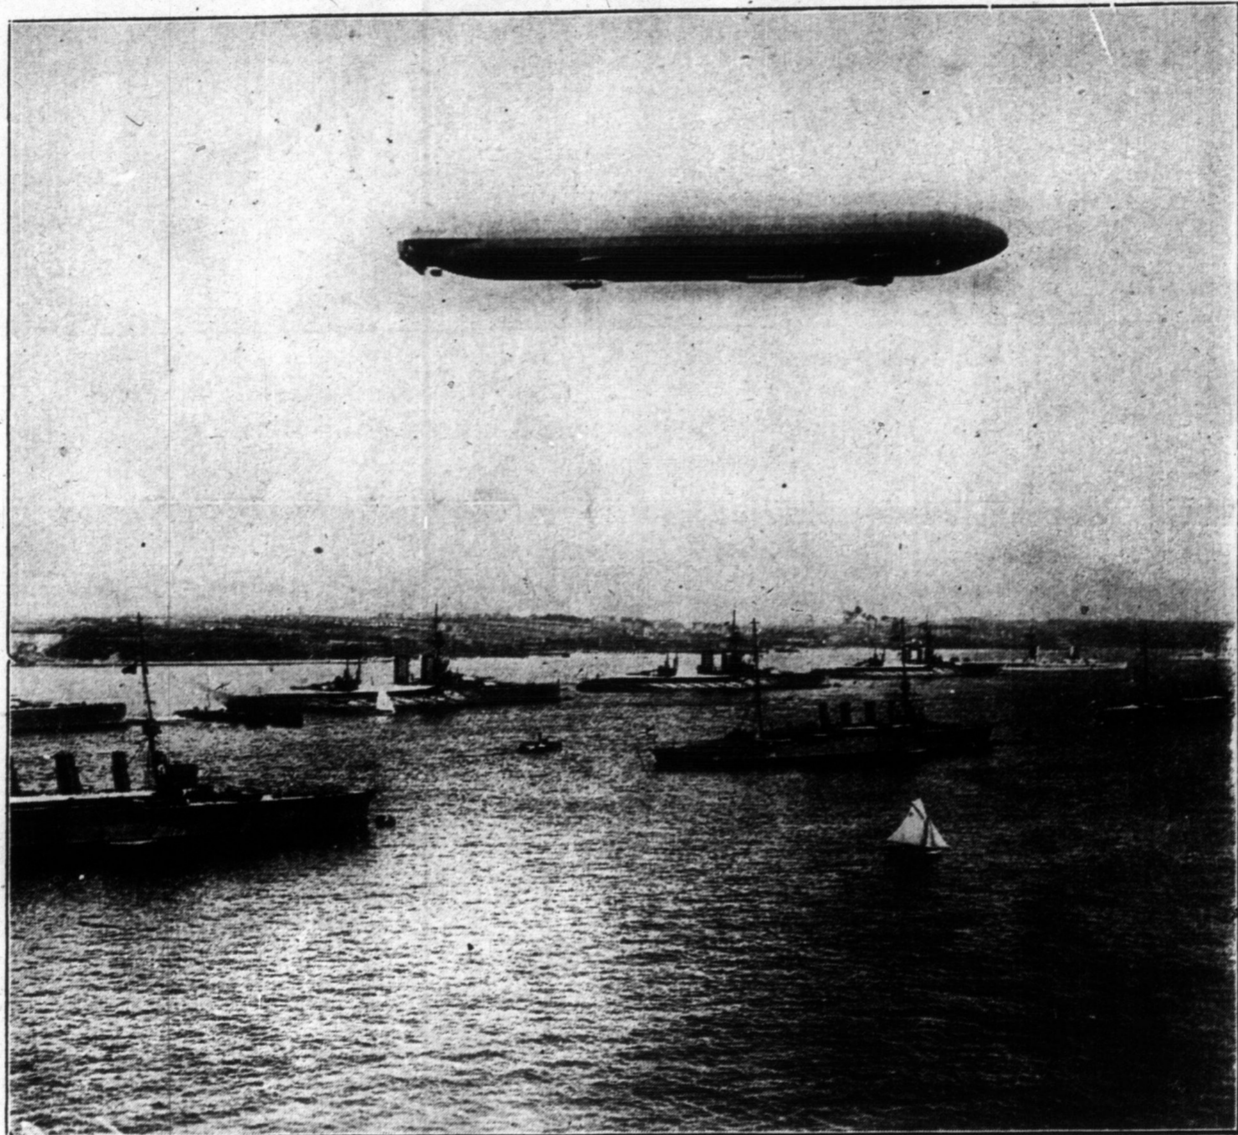

MARY COUNTESS OF ILCHESTER, QUEEN ALEXANDRA AND THE DOWAGER EMPRESS MARIE OF RUSSIA, PHOTOGRAPHED AT THE ROYAL HORTICULTURAL SHOW AT HOLLAND HOUSE, JUNE 30.

FRETTY GIRL WHO MAY BE EMPRESS OF RUSSIA—A new portrait study of the Grand Duchess Olga of Russia, the Czar's eldest daughter, recently taken at a special sitting at the Imperial Palace. In case that the illness or death of her younger brother, should prevent him from mounting the throne, she would become empress, it is said. She is now 19.

BELLE OF THE SEASON IN LONDON—A new picture of the Hon. Monica Grenfell, eldest daughter of Lord and Lady Desborough, who is perhaps the most popular of the society favorites of this season. Her father is the famous sportsman who swam Niagara.

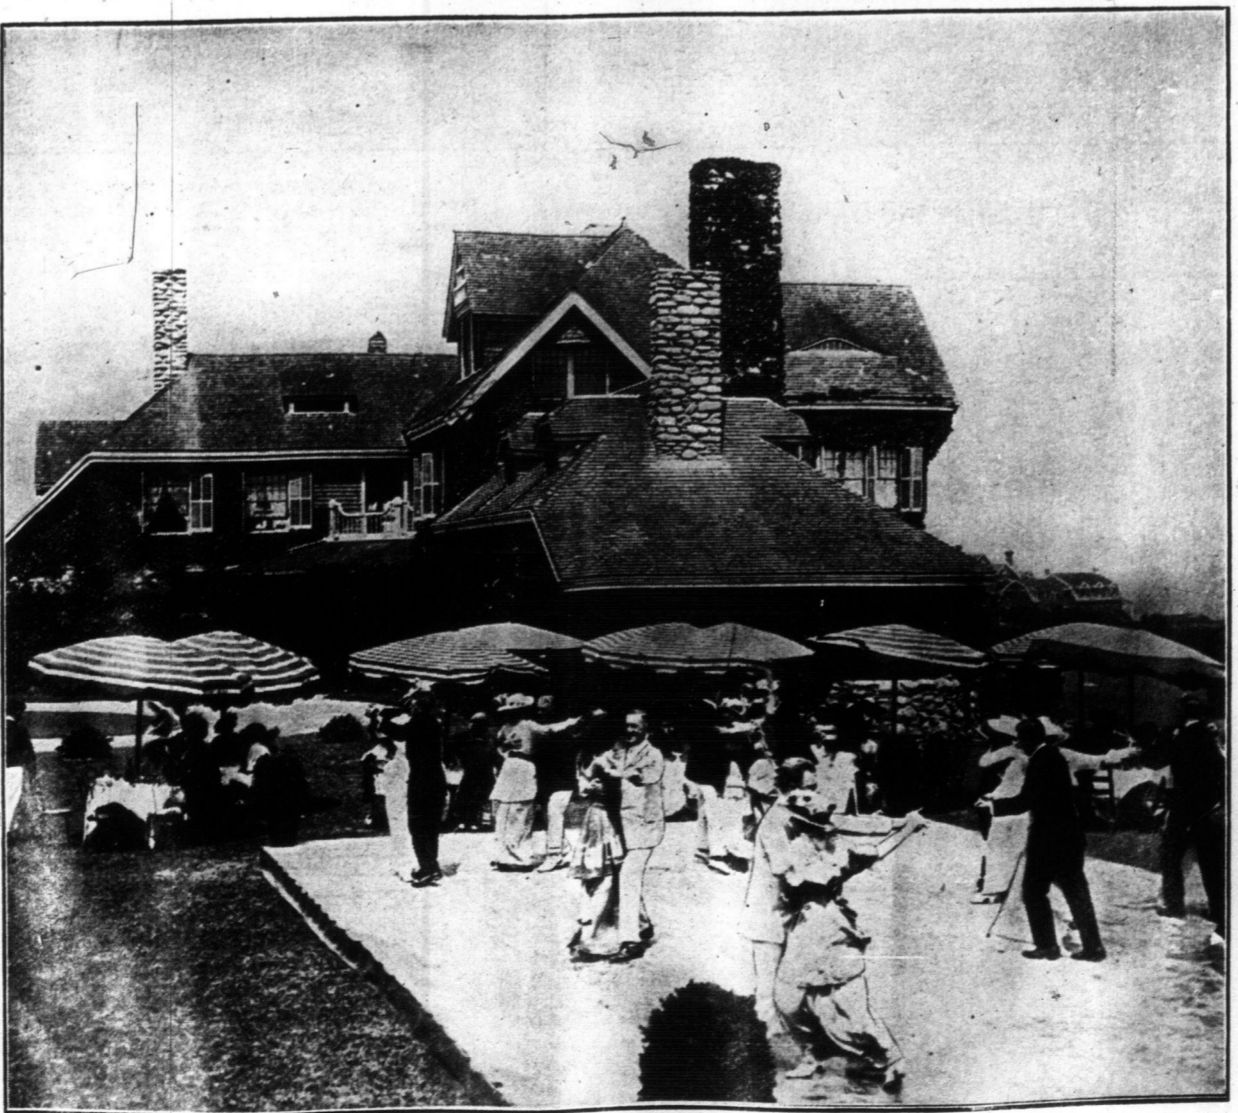

AT THE REGATTA HELD RECENTLY IN CONNECTION WITH THE WIDENING OF THE KAISER WILHELM CANAL, THE ZEPPELIN, L. III, HOVERED OVER THE ROYAL YACHT DURING THE ENTIRE INSPECTION OF THE FLEET OF BRITISH AND GERMAN WAR VESSELS.

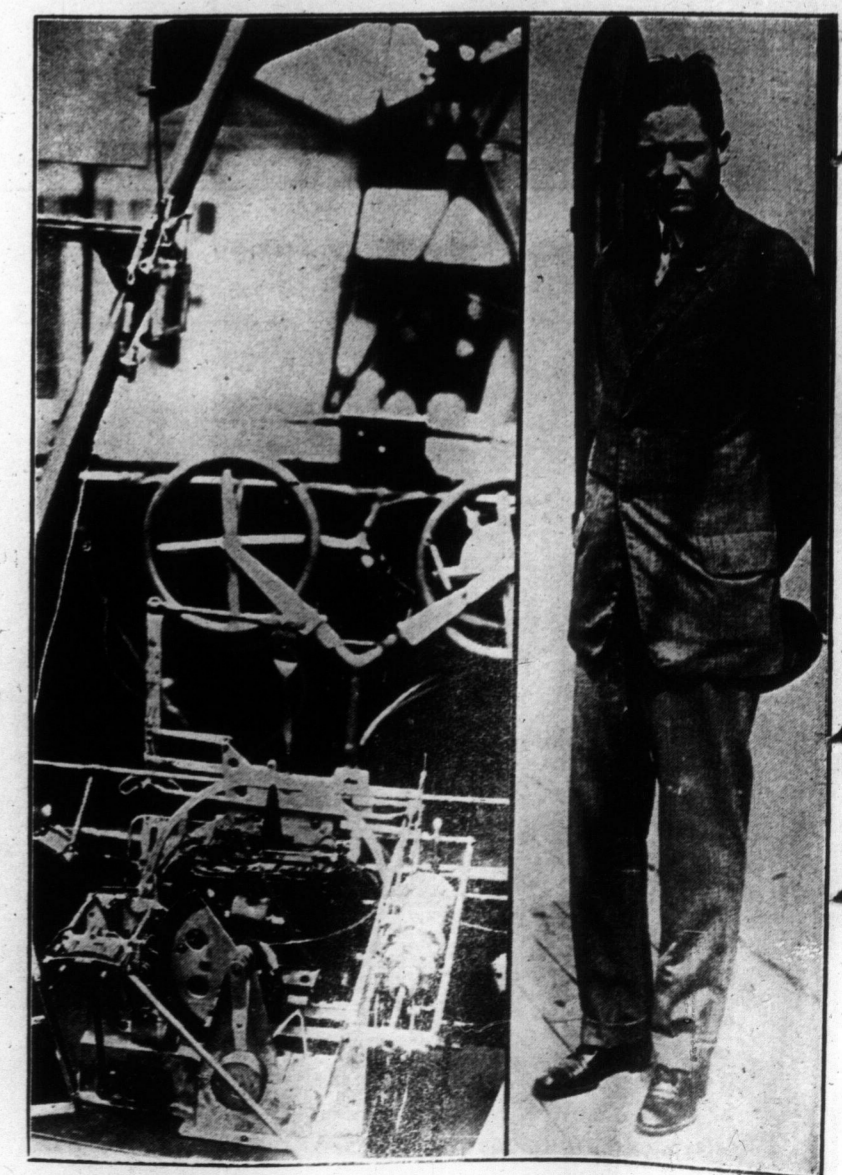

THIS COAT OF THE FLAGS OF ALL NATIONS WAS THE HIT OF THE EVENING AT A SOCIETY FAIR GIVEN IN PHILADELPHIA RECENTLY. IT WAS MADE AND WORN BY MISS NANCY LONG.

A CHARMING HOSTESS WELCOMED BACK TO NEWPORT AFTER TWO YEARS' ABSENCE—MRS. AUSTIN GRAY.

AFTER THEIR WEDDING AT NEWPORT, R. I. MR. AND MRS. PHILIP STEVENSON, LEADERS IN THE LOCAL SOCIAL COLONY, HELD A TANGO TEA AND RECEPTION ON THE LAWN OF THEIR HOME, AND SO INTRODUCED ANOTHER FAD.

LAWRENCE SPURY, OF BROOKLYN, AND HIS AEROPLANE STABILIZER WHICH WON THE $50,000 PRIZE OFFERED BY THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

THE LAUN

PHOTO T
DERS I
WERE I GROUND

KEE

Out up effe trou size 100

LA

Have your Pan
Lobby. Hite clea modeled at
NEW YORK
301 Yonge Street.

Rice

T. G.