OTTAWA, Dec. 10—What is expected to be one of the professional hockey classics of the 1925-26 season is booked here for tonight, when Tex Rickard's New York Americans meet the Senators in a scheduled N. H. L. fixture. This will be Ottawa's fourth home game in as many starts, and it will be a great chance for the locals to increase their lead as league leaders by hanging up another victory. Led by Tommy Gorman, former manager of the Ottawa club, the Americans will be at full strength and are just now going great guns, as their 6 to 2 victory over the Canadiens in Montreal Tuesday night testifies.

The former members of the Hamilton Tigers with the New York club are all big favorites here, while "Crutchy" Morrison and the famous "Bullet Joe" Simpson performed here with Edmonton two years ago. Earl Campbell is an Ottawa boy who played here for two seasons after coming from Edmonton.

"King" Clancy will be back in his

"King" Clancy will be back in his usual position on the defence against the Americans, and it is expected that the Senators will be at their very best for the contest.

PITTSBURG WON. PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 10—Pittsburg won another game in the National Hockey League schedule last night, when they took St. Patricks of Toronto into camp by the score of 6-8. Toronto had all the best of the play in the first period, when their sharpshooter, Babe period, when their sharpshooter, bate Dye, netted two goals to one by the Pirates, by Conacher. Pittsburg started in the second period and got two more, Smith and Drury doing the trick. St. Pats were no match for the home team in the third period, Pittsburg running in three goals to the visitors' one, Babe Dye doing the trick again, making it three for him on the night's play. Drury also scored another in this period along with Milks and White.

Goal-keeper Worters played a fine game, and staved off several close goals. He was knocked unconscious near the end of the game, but was revived and pluckily resumed play. Drury, Conacher and Worters, for Pittsburg, and Dye, for St. Pats," were the brilliant performers of the evening.

Coveleskie Real Pitching Leader

CHICAGO, Dec. 9—Stanley Coveles-kie, of the Washington Senators, and not Herb Pennock, of the Yankees, was the most effective pitcher in the Amer-ican League in the 1925 season, was an-nounced tonight at league headquar-

Official averages recently published gave the New York southpaw the honor, but a rechecking showed that Coveleskie is credited with the lowest percentage of earned runs, the margin being one one-hundredth of an earned cun per game.

Corrected figures give Pennock an earned run per game percentage of 2.85-plus, while the Washington star allowed but 2.84 earned runs per game.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Bill Killefer, former manager of the Chicago Cubs fonight signed as assistant to manager Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals for the 1926 season. Killefer, a elever catcher in his day, managed the Cubs for several years until Walter Maranville, shortsto, succeeded him late last season. Maranville soon resigned the post and George Gibson, former Pittsburgh chief, won the reins.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10—Paul Berlenbach, light heavyweight champion of the world, and Jack Delaney, Bridgeport battler, dedicate Tex Rickard's new Madison Square Garden to indoor boxing tomorrow night when they battle over the 15-round stretch with the title at stake. The weight called for in the articles is 175 pounds, which is the limit of the light heavyweight division. Berlenbach has come down to this poundage gradually and naturally. His weight is giving the commission no concern.

The same cannot be said of Jack Delaney, however. The local authorities are not so sure that Jack is as fit as he should be for the gruelling battle that Berlenbach is certain to give him. While practically every critic who has seen Delaney in his Bridgeport camp has come away convinced that he has completely recovered from his illness of several months ago and is in splendid condition it is a fact that not a few disquieting rumors have reached the ears of the local commissioners in the course of the last two weeks.

"Doc" Casey, Delaney's trainer, was indignant yesterday when he heard that reports had been circulated to the effect that his charge is not at the top RIFLEMEN MEET that reports had been circulated to the effect that his charge is not at the top of his form. Pete Riley, manager of the challenger, was more than indignant. He declared that he would have a fine laugh at the expense of those who have been questioning Jack's condition.

The Saint John Fusiliers Riffe Association distributed prizes won during the year at a meeting in the Armories last evening with Lieut. M. J. Scott in the chair. Short addresses were made by Lt.-Col. George Keeffe and Lieut. Col. Sparling, who presented his cup to R. Q. M. S. Moore.

SUGGESTIONS MADE.

On rising to present the cup Col. Sparling gave the meeting some fine suggestions for making rifle shooting who thinks he can't get in there and step fifteen rounds with the best of them is wrong. So far as Berlenbach is concerned, Jack won't have to go fifteen rounds because the fight won't last that long. If Jack doesn't win inside of ten rounds I'll be very much surprised."

SAINT JOHN'S OPPORTUNITY for having the best senior hockey team since the early days of the sport in Saint John, were never brighter than they are this year. On the forward line, they have eight fast players contending for positions on the team. Of late years this has been the weak point in the locals' team. Fast skaters have been available and always will be available in the skating metropolis of Canada. Good stick handlers and goal getters are what has been lacking here especially the latter. Shooting wide of the nets, right at the goal tender or from too far out has been a weakness with Saint John forwards. This season, this is being rectified by hard, steady practice and the presence on the Saint John line-up of players who have received this training elsewhere. Present indications are that Saint John will have its greatest goal getting team in local hockey history. The defence looks good with four players contending for goal and four seeking places on the right and left defence. Satúrday afternoon there was a good turn out on the lake and many of the players appeared to be in mid season form. The going of the two LeClairs and Joe Lamb has shot a big hole in the Sussex line-up but there are several youngsters burning up in their anxiety to keep Sussex on the map. Moncton has a hustling young outfit and when this trio starts their annual clashes the well-known ice is bound to fly.

THE SIX-DAY BICYCLE RACE is over at last and the sport world breathes a sigh of relief. Keeping up the excitement for six days whirling around a track gives the spectators a cramp in the neck. It reminds us of the story of the guy who went mad looking for a corner in a roundhouse.

HOW WOULD YOU like to hear the clerk of the course at The . Times-Star Stocking Fund races on Hilton Belyea's rink call out "All out for the Old Timers' Special-Logan, Belyea, Breen, Parker, Welch, Duffy, etc., etc.?" To the present-day fan, such names are names only. We know about their deeds but few of us have ever seen them in action. It has been suggested that the fans of today would like to see the champions of yesterday in action and we pass it along for what it is worth. A race with Fred Logan, former international champion, Hilton Belyea, Hudson Breen, Fen Parker, Mike Welch, Bart Duffy and others, we feel, would pack them in tighter than sardines. These are the men who bore Saint John's name in years gone by to dizzy heights in the speed-skating world and their successors, Charlie Gorman, Willie Logan, Ed Snodgrass, Frank Garnett, and others, are making a good job of carrying on. It was they who used to thrill the older generation with their great speed and the way they toppled over the fellows who came here to show the boys how to skate. How would you like to see them in action once more? The committee would be only too glad to stage such an exhibition if it could be arranged.

MR. "RED" GRANGE—ever hear of him?—says he will not get married just yet. "Red" apparently prefers the gridiron to the flat iron, And, the rolling ball to the rolling-pin.

CAN THEY COMEBACK?" a question as old as sport itself, is going to receive another answer tomorrow night after the hospital attendants have lugged out of the ring either Paul Berlenbach or Jack Delaney. This fracas is for the light-heavyweight title of the world and if the French-Canuck wins, it means fame and glory for some time. A defeat for Mr. Berlenbach will set him back to the bottom of the ladder. But the main item is this—"can Berlenbach stop Delaney, remembering that it was the sharp-shooting right hand of the Bridgeport battler that knocked him cold in their first meeting." If he can do that, the Astoria boxer lifts himself into the highly-exclusive class presided over by one Stanley Ketchell. There is one bird that did comeback and kayo the man who kayoed him. The medical experts report Mr. Delaney is in great shape, So is Berlenbach. A knockout seems assured. If Mr. Delaney is right, Mr. Berlenbach probably will see more stars than there are in Hollywood. If he is not right, the odds favor the rugged Berlenbach, Your guess is as good

Little Kiddies' Fund Should Get Real Boost Through Meet

"WILLIE" LOGAN, one of the outstanding skaters last year on the big circuit and the boy who gives every earmark of winning his championship spurs in the big senior meets some day, has sent in his entry for The Times-Star Stocking, Fund races on Hilton Belyea's rink in West Saint John next Wednesday night. Logan had barely read the announcement in last night's Times-Star when he asked that he be counted in as one ready to do his bit in helping along this worthy fund. He followed close on the heels of Charlie Gorman, Canadian skating ace, in sending in his name and with two such prominent skaters as Gorman and Logan entered, some excellent competition is assured. This meet, in addition, will give the boys much-needed competition before leaving for the big meets. This is the boy who won the Mar-ltime and provincial championship senior meets last year, although un-der 18 years. He has entered the Times-Star Stocking Fund races on Hilton Belyea's rink next week. He looks forward to a good year in the senior ranks this year.
