LOCAL NEWS

ON DUTY AGAIN.
Chief of Police Smith has returned to his desk after holidays.

DEATH OF CHILD.
The death of Rena, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Gagan, occurred this morning at their home. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

MICHAEL KELLY DEAD.
Michael Kelly, one of the oldest residents of the city, died this morning in the General Public Hospital, following an operation. Mr. Kelly was a native of Ireland, but had spent the greater part of his life in St. John. He was eighty-five years of age and for the last few years had been in the Mater Misericordiae Home. A niece, Mrs. P. McCafferty, 246 Duke street, survives.

A WEST END COMPLAINT.
A correspondent has written The Times stating that the people on what is known as the loop line, Queen Square route, in West St. John are greatly inconvenienced by the fact that the street cars have not been back on that route. He says that the jitney service is inadequate and that the people there who are tax payers in the city have to walk on these cold mornings.

A HAPPY EVENING.
The members of St. Matthew's E. and P. club held their annual masquerade at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Turner, Prospect Point, on Wednesday. Some very pretty, as well as comical costumes were worn. A very pleasant evening was spent in games, dancing and telling fortunes. Mr. Cameron, on behalf of the members, extended to Mr. and Mrs. Turner a hearty vote of thanks for the use of their home on such a joyous occasion.

SCOUTS ENTERTAIN.
A meeting of the executive committee of the "Boy Scouts Association" was held at 1 o'clock at luncheon at Bond's restaurant with Dr. G. B. Peat in the chair. The duties of the various officers were assigned at the meeting. Those present were G. L. Short, A. C. Shelton, Rev. R. M. Legate, Mr. M. Queen, E. H. Turnbull, J. T. McGowan, J. F. McMurray, Col. W. H. Harrison, F. E. Simpson, C. H. Robertson, Lowe and Frith, V. C. Trimberley and J. W. Duncan.

MRS. ELLEN DEMEAU.
Early this morning Mrs. Ellen Demeau widow of William Demeau died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jennie McDonald, 80 Moore street. She leaves two sons, Ambey and John, and three daughters, Mrs. McDonald of this city and Miss Nellie Demeau of Niagara Falls. Her mother, three brothers, and three sisters, all in the province of Quebec. The funeral will be held from her daughter's residence on Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock to Holy Trinity church.

R. S. RITCHIE PRESIDENT.
The annual meeting of the Log Cabin Peeling Club, Ltd., was held last evening at 88 Charlotte street, when the following directors were elected for the season, 1921 and 1922—E. W. Paul, R. S. Ritchie, J. H. Noble, W. A. Johnston, F. R. Crawford, W. F. B. Paterson and G. W. Smith. At a meeting of the directors, after the annual meeting, the following officers were elected: R. S. Ritchie, president; F. R. Crawford, vice-president; E. W. Paul, secretary-treasurer; committee of management, R. S. Ritchie, J. H. Noble, W. A. Johnston, auditors, F. W. Noble and Jos. McFarlane. The club house has been remodelled during the year, painted outside and painted and papered inside and is now claimed to be the best club house in the province. A new fence has been placed around the property.

CHARTER REPORT.
Chartering business remains restricted in volume, most fixtures effected being on the grain account. The tone of the market is decidedly improved in spite of the fact that nothing has occurred to alter the trade outlook, which is still overhung with exchange difficulties and the uncertainty of the political situation. One of the features of the week was additional fixtures for coal to the West Indies. Fixtures to South America are about through for the season. It is expected that coal shipments to Italy will revive and that rates will undergo a rise. There were a limited number of charters in the sugar carrying trade.

Tonnage was sparingly offered and met with a prompt response, the rates adjusting themselves to the demand, which was almost confined to the transatlantic grain trade. Rates out of Montreal are strongest owing to the desire to get the grain out of the port before the close of navigation. Most of the grain moving out of Montreal is to the Continent, and very little to the United Kingdom. Time charter rates are weak owing to small demand. The little inquiry in the market is only for single voyages and for small boats.

CHURCH PARADE NEXT SUNDAY

Instructions have been issued by Brig.-Gen. A. H. Macdonell, C. M. G., D. S. O., commanding the military district, for a church parade to be held on Armistice Sunday, November 6. The following units will be represented: 3rd N. B. Heavy Brigade, C. G. A.; No. 6 Signal Company, C. S. C.; St. John Fusiliers, No. 1 Company, Th. C. M. G. brigade; No. 7 Company, C. A. S. C.; No. 14 Field Ambulance, and No. 7 detachment, R. C. O. C.

The Great War Veterans Association has signified its intention of having as many of its members as possible attend the service in civilian dress.

The Protestants will attend divine service in Knox church, City road, while the Catholic members will attend the 11:30 o'clock mass at the Cathedral.

All those taking part in the parade will meet at the armory, and the parade will start at 10:30 o'clock, taking the following route: Carmarthen, Mecklenburg, Sydney streets, south to the square, Charlotte, Coburg and Garden streets to City road. When Knox church is reached, the Catholic detachments will march via City road, Haymarket square and Waterloo street to the Cathedral. The two parades will return to the armory independently after the services.

According to general orders issued by Brig.-Gen. A. H. Macdonell, C. M. G., D. S. O., on Tuesday, the following have been granted certificates as grade lieutenants: G. E. Creed, F. H. Burgess, R. K. Jones, W. F. Lawlor, D. D. Macdonald, O. Miller, H. E. C. Smith, R. R. "Redrick."

RIVER PIRATES ON THE ST. JOHN

Grand Manan Man Says He was Robbed of $175

Tells of Armed and Masked Men from Speedy Motor Boat Boarding His Craft and Relieving Him of Proceeds of Sale of Fish.

One does not nowadays need to delve into the realms of fiction or travel in retrospect into the middle ages to uncover the tales of pirates; tales of daring hold-ups can be produced almost from our own front gardens. The mind of a Times reporter was carried back to the days of the "big doings" in the Spanish main by a story told this morning by Daniel C. Barnes, of White Head, Grand Manan, on his return after a fish-selling expedition up the St. John river.

Mr. Barnes last week took a motor boat load of fish up river and by making inland trips by team sold his cargo. With some $175 in his pocket he set out on his return trip by gasoline boat. Just as dusk was gathering last Monday evening his motor stalled and he set about making repairs. In a few minutes he noticed the approach of another boat, painted white and evidently possessed of considerable speed and power, approaching. It bore no lights.

Thinking the boat was bringing assistance, Mr. Barnes welcomed its arrival, but to his surprise he says he was suddenly confronted with two masked men, each armed with a revolver, who commanded him to stand and deliver. The muzzle of a gun within a few inches of his head precluded any argument in the matter and Mr. Barnes felt there was no alternative but to hand over his money. He passed them a roll containing about $175, but managed to retain $10 which was in another pocket. The men boarded the boat and were soon lost in the darkness.

Mr. Barnes finally effected sufficient repairs to his engine to enable him, with the assistance of a man who he says he was suddenly confronted with two masked men, each armed with a revolver, who commanded him to stand and deliver. The muzzle of a gun within a few inches of his head precluded any argument in the matter and Mr. Barnes felt there was no alternative but to hand over his money. He passed them a roll containing about $175, but managed to retain $10 which was in another pocket. The men boarded the boat and were soon lost in the darkness.

SIGHT SEEING DAY FOR CHIEF OF THE "DOKEYS"

Mr. Meese at Courtenay Bay, Musquash and on Harbor Trip—Montreal May Have Temple.

Gus Meese of Spokane, Wash., Imperial Prince of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, was this morning a guest of members of Adlia Temple on an automobile tour to Courtenay Bay where the new harbor development work was inspected and to Musquash where the hydro electric development work was viewed with much interest. They also visited other points of interest and some of the prominent manufacturing plants in which Mr. Meese is especially interested owing to his activities in brush and broom manufacture in Spokane. He is also a member of the Board of Trade there and takes a keen interest in all development work.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Meese, also James S. Lord of St. Stephen, royal visior of Adlia Temple, and S. L. Silvester of Auburn, Me., past grand chancellor of the Pythian order in that state. An informal luncheon was served at the Royal as soon.

This afternoon Mr. Meese will be a guest of Rotary Captain Bruce Westcott, a member of Adlia Temple, on board a tug boat, which will cruise about the harbor where the terminal facilities will be inspected. At six o'clock the distinguished visitors will be guests at a banquet served in the dining room of the Pythian Casino, after which a ceremonial will take place at which thirty-five tyrons will be led into the mysteries of the Oriental rank. This is expected to carry the party to a late hour. Tomorrow the visitors will be given an opportunity to sight seeing or shopping prior to their departure from the city enroute south where Imperial Prince Meese will continue making his official visits.

Yesterday Mayor Schofield called on Mr. Meese and extended greetings on behalf of the city. He met Mr. Silvester who explained that he was the bearer of greetings from the mayor of Auburn, Me.

Mr. Meese expressed himself as being greatly impressed with St. John and considered its position tended to make it a national asset. He said he felt that the city should make rapid progress so soon as conditions righted themselves after these trying years of strife and unrest.

The Pythian order in Montreal is contemplating organizing a "Dokey" Temple and while here Mr. Meese has been in communication with the Pythian officials there by wire. He expressed a wish that the initiation meeting might be held during his visit in the east as he is very anxious to see a temple instituted in the metropolis of Canada.

THREE YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Inspector W. J. Stevens of the C. P. R. investigation department received word last night that Chester L. Arbo of Fairville, who appeared before Judge Slipp in Ormoco yesterday on a charge of being concerned with another in the theft of eighteen pairs of boots from a C. P. R. car at Fredericton Junction, had pleaded guilty and elected to a speedy trial and had been sentenced to three years in Dorchester. He was arrested on the night of September 28 by Inspector Stevens and Investigator Costello.
