Games Postponed.

Four leagues postponed games scheduled for last evening owing to the activities of the rainmakers. The Commercials and the St. George's were billed for the Queen square diamond in the senior league; the Post Office refused to allow the Water Works team take any advantage of the H-20 in the civic league, and the St. Rose's stayed home in Fairville instead of meeting the Cathedral crew in the St. Peter's house league. In the senior league next week the Queen square diamond will witness three sames next week on Tuesday, Thurshday and Friday nights. St. George's will meet the Wolves and the Commercials, and the last-named teams will hook up together on next Friday night.
