WEARING APPAREL PRICES MUCH LESS IN LARGE CENTRES

Wearing apparel prices are considerably lower than a few months ago, according to S. C. Young, manager of the Oak Hall Bargain Basement, who has just returned from Boston, New York, Buffalo, Toronto and Montreal on an extensive buying trip.

Although Mr. Young went away with the expectation of making some good buys, he was agreeably surprised with the unusually low prices that he was able to take advantage of.

The reason Mr. Young gives is that just about this time every year the larger manufacturers sell out at great reductions all their summer stocks to make room for new fall lines in the process of making. Fortunately for Oak Hall, Mr. Young went away just at the psychological time, and was able to make such exceptionally advantageous purchases that the month of July will certainly be a banner bargain month in the Oak Hall Bargain Basement.

There will be arriving during the month for Oak Hall's Bargain Basement wonderful bargains in blouses, sport sweaters, skirts, dresses, hosiery, shoes, and underthings, as well as shirts, underwear, hosiery, overalls, and other things for men and boys. These will be put on sale from day to day as they arrive, so that it will well repay every shopper to visit Oak Hall's Bargain Basement every day.
