LOCAL NEWS

THROWN OUT OF SLEIGH
While driving yesterday afternoon Joseph Finley was thrown out of his sleigh when it swerved in Queen street and upset. He was severely shaken up, but will be about again a couple of days.

SUPREME COURT WRITS
A writ has been issued in the Supreme Court in the suit of H. M. Floyd against the Canadian Home Investment Company, the declarant claiming $1,240 on breach of contract.

REVIVAL SERVICES
Rev. W. R. Robinson, pastor of the Ludlow street Baptist church, is holding a series of revival services in his church. The services have been well attended and much enthusiasm has been shown by the members of the congregation and others. The subject of prayer was discussed last evening by the pastor who pointed out its value and possibilities. At the close of the service several persons professed conversion.

L. L. AND B. GATHERING
All who helped make the recent performance of "When We Were Twenty-One," at the Opera House, such a distinct success, members of the executive committee, cast and chorus, call-boy and "props" and others had a fine time last night, when they were entertained in the rooms of the society in Union street to a social and dance. A delightful programme was carried out, in which Misses N. Barry, Stella Fyne and B. Sweeney, Edward O'Hara, Harry Dever and J. A. Kelly took part. Dancing, songs and music were enjoyed. The catering was done by Bond's. The affair was a pleasant one and all had an excellent time.

GAVE CONCERT IN BROOKVILLE
The choir of Pentecost and Methodist churches combined last evening and drove to Brookville, where they united with the choir of the Brookville Methodist church and gave a concert in the Brookville hall. The entertainment was opened with a chorus by the Exmouth street choir. This was followed by songs, readings, orchestral selections and speeches. Those taking part were: Mrs. E. Loggie, Mrs. Arthur McInnis, Miss Minnie Myles, Miss Minnie Baskin and Mr. Mullin, all of whom sang solos; John Salmon, Mrs. Leach and John McEachern, readings; Ronald Edwards, selection on the flute, and Miss McEachern violin solo. Charles Crowell entertained the audience with an exhibition of club swinging, and an address was made by Rev. J. J. Pinkus, pastor of the Brookville church. Refreshments were served by the Brookville ladies.

CLARK-NORTHROP
Two young people of North End, Miss Georgia Irene Northrop, daughter of Willard Northrop, and William John Clark, son of George Clark, were united in marriage in St. Luke's church last evening by Rev. E. F. McKim, rector. The wedding took place at 7:30 o'clock. The bride was attended by Miss Christina Irvine while Arthur Long supported the groom. The bride was prettily attired in a navy blue suit and wore a king's blue hat and black fur. The groom was dressed in a navy blue suit and wore a black picture hat with white trimmings. After the ceremony a reception was held and luncheon served at the home of the bride in Metcalfe street. Many useful and interesting mementoes were received including a handsome piano from the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pinkus, best wishes of a host of friends, will make their home at 84 Metcalfe street.

BURIED TODAY
The regard in which the late J. Bernard Kyfin was held by many friends was attested this morning when, despite the extremely cold weather, his funeral was attended by many. It took place from the home of his parents, Captain and Mrs. Thomas Kyfin, Douglas avenue, in St. Peter's cemetery, where Rev. Simon J. Grogan, C. S. R., officiated at high mass of requiem, at nine o'clock. Interment was in the new section of the cemetery. The members of St. Peter's Y. M. C. A., in which the young man was an active worker, walked in a body before the hearse and formed in two ranks at the church. Through the ranks the cortege passed. Many beautiful floral tributes were received, including a handsome floral cross from D. Magee's Sons, Ltd., another from the staff and a tasteful wreath bearing the word "Remember" from the members of that baseball team, of which young Mr. Kyfin had been manager. Besides these were many individual tributes.

STRENGTHENING POLICE FORCE

Appointments of Four of New Men Announced Today—Commissioner Speaks of Matter

Four new members of the police force were sworn in before Magistrate Ritchie this morning. They are all well built men and will strengthen the force considerably. Among those appointed were Ralph F. Dyleman, formerly a member of the force who did duty on the West Side. He is 1 1/2 inches tall, weighs 185 pounds, 22 years of age. The others appointed were Cecil W. McLean, 22 years, 6 feet 1 inch, weight 180; William Armstrong, 22 years, 6 feet 1 1/2 inches, 188 pounds, and Selma E. Gurnsey, 24 years, 6 feet 1-3/4 inch, 185 pounds. The chief has been authorized to appoint five men and the other appointments will be made soon. Commissioner McLellan, who moved for the appointment of the extra men, said this morning that his object was to bring the number of policemen up to the same standard as when the commission in form of government came into effect. At present the force was three men short of the number at that time, and the appointment of five men would not only fill these vacancies but give two more men to provide additional protection in West St. John. At present there were five men on the west side, the two regular officers, the extra winter patrolman and two others. The complaint had been made that the city proper was suffering from lack of police protection because the force was short handed, and it was his intention to remove this excuse. When the additional men were appointed the force would be at the same strength as when the commissioners came into office, he said, and no blame could be attached to the city government for any lack of enforcement of the law.

NEW SUB-DIVISION

F. H. McNair to Have Building Lots at Torryburn

F. H. McNair has purchased from Thomas Mercer & Son a portion of land at Torryburn Heights on the I. C. R. about seven miles from the city. It consists of four acres which he intends to have subdivided into building lots. He proposes to erect houses thereon and it is expected that the section will be very popular in this regard. The lots are just a convenient distance from the Torryburn station, a few minutes ride from the city.

NEWS OF FAIRVILLE

The committee appointed by the board of trade of Lancaster to interview the Highway Board regarding street railway extension out the Menawagonish Road, have not been able to get together yet. The first meeting held on the 11th inst. was just very satisfactory and the board requested the committee to hold another session. As the result of this meeting the citizens are awaiting news with interest. The board of trade committee consists of Amasa W. A. Robertson, W. J. Linton, Frank Flewelling and F. V. Hamm. Last evening at the regular session of the Fairville Brotherhood, W. E. Earle delivered a most instructive address on "Great Men, Places and Things I have seen." He took his audience first to Ireland whose people he described as the most witty and courteous he had ever seen amongst, then on to the Madeira Islands where there are no wagons used but sleds with cobble stone wheels and drawn by oxen, from there to Cape Town, South Africa, with its modern civic equipment and government. A trip was also made inland visiting Johannesburg, Kimberley and Pretoria. Mr. Earle described in detail the battlefield of Colenso where Earl Roberts' son was killed and showed the ideal strategic advantage of the Boers' position. A stop was made at the foot of Table Mountain where Cecil Rhodes is buried, and many interesting sights were described. The lecturer also spent some time on the Rhodes scholar bequest and then closed his remarks by eulogistic references to Canada, the "best land of all." Considering the inclemency of the weather the meeting was well attended. Mr. Earle received a hearty vote of thanks.

WARREN R. COY, MALL OWNER, OF GAGGETOWN, DIES SUDDENLY

Friends in the city and elsewhere were shocked to hear of the death of Warren R. Coy, a prominent mill owner of Upper Gaggetown, which occurred suddenly this morning at the home of a friend there. He was ill only one day. The cause of death is said to be heart failure. Mr. Coy is survived by a wife and two children.

THE STEAMERS

On account of a delay in the mails the White Star Liner Teutonic, which was to have sailed at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, will not get away until 10 o'clock tonight. She will have about 800 passengers and a good cargo of general freight and five carloads of mail. The Inishowen Head is still due.

MARTIN-SNELGROVE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Carmarthen street parsonage last evening when Miss Sarah Snelgrove, of Trinity Bay, Nfld., was united in marriage to Ananias J. Martin, also of Trinity Bay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. Deinsadt in the presence of a few friends of the contracting parties. The bride was dressed in white embroidered crepe de chene with a veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Marion Benson, who wore white mulle and carried pink carnations. The groom was supported by Newman J. Curtis. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will reside in Canterbury street. They have a large number of friends in and about the city who will wish them every happiness in their married life.
