BIGAMY CASE IN HAMPTON COURT

Strictures on Marriage Law Are Drawn From Judge

SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Man and Woman Both Apparently Thought Their Course Proper—They Must Separate and He Support First Wife—Youth Pleads Guilty of Theft

(Special to Times)

In the Kings County Court under the Special Trials Act this morning Judge Josiah had before him Charles W. Graves of Berwick, Me., charged with bigamy. The prisoner appeared to be quite unconscious of having committed any crime and Sarah Lockhart, the second wife, appeared equally free of having any idea of wrong doing.

The prisoner said that Jeremiah O'Regan, his employer, and who acted as best man at the second marriage, not knowing that he had another wife still living, told him to "do ahead, that it would be all right." The minister, Rev. Mr. Rowley, asked if he was single or a widow, and he replied "a widower." If the minister had asked him "what kind" he was going to say "a grave widower."

O'Regan denied all knowledge of the prisoner's former marriage until some time after the second marriage. His Honor that he knew Graves had a wife living, but he told her to "come along, it would only make trouble for the other woman."

His Honor in pronouncing sentence commented on the fact that the marriage in New Brunswick under which, in this case, two persons both evidently of full maturity, were united in marriage without sufficient inquiry by the minister in the circumstances and conditions. He strongly urged amendment to the act compelling registration of all marriages and the production of the register's certificate that the law was not broken.

He also said a medical certificate had been filed showing the prisoner was a victim of tuberculosis and could not be admitted to the penitentiary so, in view of all the circumstances, he would sentence him to two years in the penitentiary and suspend the sentence until the prisoner could obtain a clear health certificate and with the further provision that he abandon living with the Lockhart woman and make provision for the support of his first wife.

Herbert Wallace, a youth of sixteen, charged with stealing a watch on October 28, the property of John McCarriag and further charged with stealing a horse, the property of John Hall, on Nov. 3, while still under bail on the first charge, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, but sentence was suspended pending further good conduct.

Mrs. Hoover appealed strongly to the young fellow not to destroy his prospects for life and bring disgrace on himself, his parents and friends. The court adjourned sine die.

MRS. JORDAN HERE Mrs. J. C. Jordan, of River Glade, arrived in the city this morning accompanied by Miss Kneary and will leave this evening for Boston. Dr. David Townsend is also in the city today and is concluding some matters of business in connection with the new provincial sanitarium before Mrs. Jordan leaves the province.

Speaking by a Times reporter this morning Dr. Townsend said that their work is progressing very favorably and that they are making rapid strides toward the completion of the institution.

GEESSE AND LAMBS. H. S. Jones made his last shipment from P. E. Jones for the season, the Empire on Monday morning. He has shipped this fall nearly 7,000 geese and 3,000 lambs.

MAYOR TAKING STEPS TO GET LAND AT THE BARRACKS POINT FOR INDUSTRIAL USE

Steps are being taken by Mayor Fyfe to secure the land included in the military grounds at the barracks point for use for industrial purposes. When the Harlow Facilities Commission met here in 1908 this proposal was made, and the then minister of militia expressed a willingness to sell the land to the city at a reasonable price at any time it was needed.

NO SUCH ARTILLERY DUEL SINCE PAPAS BEAT RUSSIANS

Wonderful Spectacle in Great Battle Begun on Sunday Near Constantinople

Bulgarians Apparently Made Little Headway—Plot in Turkish Capital To Form Republic—Armies in Conflict at Monastir

(Canadian Press) London, Nov. 18.—The Times correspondent at the Tchatalja lines telegraphed: "The Bulgarians smashed their artillery positions at daybreak and opened a heavy fire along the front from Tchatalja fort at Paps Burgas. This is the first real endeavor they have made against the Turkish lines."

"All the permanent works have heavy Krupp guns in emplacement and other large caliber guns have been mounted in the recently constructed works facing the Turkish lines. The Bulgarians have selected the position the Bulgarians have selected as their salient point is fronted on the right by the gradual gully of the two Hamidli forts. The Turkish front is connected by trenches worked into the alignment of the old fortifications."

"The engagement so far as one could judge, seemed to be going in favor of the Turks in the Derron region, where they took many prisoners and several heavy guns. The Turkish number 40000 with forty guns. The Bulgarians number 20000 with 200 guns, including siege guns and howitzers."

"No attempt has been made to take the town itself by assault. It is intended to force the surrender by the aid of the artillery alone. The Turkish occupied excellent positions around the town. The Bulgarians were obliged to advance across soft marshes, and were exposed to the enemy's fire. They moved forward with their habitual courage, covered by heavy fire from their own guns, and occupied a line running from Tchatalja, past Bezant, an important position, 60 feet high to the hills of Darso, Obokovo and Gofebce."

"It is said that all the Bulgarian troops have departed from Adrianople, the investment of which has been left entirely to the Serbians. The Bulgarians have to the oldest residents of that district and a man who, during his long life, has earned the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact."

Mr. McCarvour was born in Londonderry, Ireland, and came to this country with his parents when he was seven years old. He had been a member of the Orange Lodge for more than sixty-five years and was among those who marched on July 24, 1840 when the York Point trouble occurred.

He is survived by two sons, Hugh I. and Fred, and four daughters, Mrs. J. M. Galbraith of West St. John, Mrs. T. J. Galbraith, Mrs. W. J. Galbraith and Mrs. T. H. Galbraith of Lorneville.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from his late home in Lorneville.

A LAUNDRY SUIT The trial of the civil non-jury case of J. Charles Salmon vs. Raymond & Dorothy Compas Limited, was commenced this morning at the adjourned sitting of the September circuit, Mr. Justice McKeown presiding.

This is an action to recover about $1,300 damages for alleged breach of contract. The defendants contracted with the plaintiff, it is alleged, on January 16, 1911, whereby the plaintiff, who is manager of the Globe Laundry, was to launder all flat pieces for the Royal Hotel at a flat rate of $1,800 a year, and 30 cents a hundred for all in excess of 200,000 pieces.

The plaintiff further alleges that the defendants sent none of their laundry work to the Globe Laundry, and that the damages are now claimed for breach of contract.

Mr. Salmon and W. B. Tennant were examined this morning and inquired resumed at 2:30 o'clock. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., appears for the plaintiff and M. G. Teed, K. C., for the defendants.

GUNMEN PLANNING A DINNER AT 'LEFTY LOUIE'S' EXPECTING ACQUITTAL

New York, Nov. 18.—In the trial of the four gunmen charged with shooting down Herman Rosenthal, the morning session was given over to the closing address of Charles G. Walsh, counsel for the defense. The afternoon was allotted to Frank Moss summing up for the state. Justice Goff may deliver his charge today. If he does the verdict might be expected to-night.

The four defendants have expressed confidence in acquittal, and it is said they have prepared for a spread to entertain their friends in celebration of a victory. The flat of Lefty Louis has been selected for the gathering. With him, if their predictions are correct, will be "Dip the Frank," "Whitey Lewis," and "Dago Frank."

Paris, Nov. 18.—The Journal's correspondent at the Tchatalja lines on Sunday, December 16, describes the opening of the battle on the Tchatalja lines on Sunday. The two men led a murderous hand which pillaged and burned villages and massacred Christians near Adrianople. The doctored man asked for water with which they washed their feet, the Moslem preparation for death, which met stoically.

Constantinople, Nov. 18.—Several prominent unionists including Talat Bey, an ex-cabinet minister, were arrested yesterday. Another member of the party, D. Jampoulat Bey, resisted arrest, killing one officer and wounding another. He was seized, court-martialed and sentenced to death. An ex-deputy, Obedialah, and Djemil Bey, a member of the staff of the newspaper Tainin, were sentenced to five years imprisonment on charges of high treason. One of the editors of the Tainin was condemned to seven years imprisonment.

ANOTHER SPAN OF THE BRIDGE GOES

Looks Like Structure Over Miramichi Doomed

KILLS TWO WIVES; ENDS OWN LIFE

Pittsburg Man Brings Women Together in His Plans For Tragedy

FEARED BIGAMY CHARGE

(Special to Times)

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 18.—Another span of the Miramichi bridge fell yesterday. Two spans had fallen in the summer and destroyed this means of communication across the Miramichi and nothing has been done to repair the structure. Other spans will likely go soon and the whole structure will probably go out with the spring freshet.

The ice formed in the river on Saturday night when the thermometer dropped to 12 to 14, the lowest so far this season. The ice completely spanned the big sheet of water from shore to shore. It held good during the day and was broken only at the points where the ferry boats crossed at Chatham and Newcastle. The temperature, however, went up 8 1/2 degrees and this morning the ice was running down the river.

The date is very early for the river to be frozen from shore to shore. The pilot schooner had to be brought up river yesterday by a tug as they were helpless in the thin ice. Two rowboats started out from the Chatham side of the river on Sunday morning but could make practically no headway as thick was the ice. There was no wind yesterday and that kept the ice from being broken up earlier.

SOME MILK FOUR CENTS A PINT AND SOME TO BE FIVE

Increase Put in Effect Today—Up Goes Cream Also

The advance in the price of milk went into effect today, and the price in future will be eight cents a quart. The dealers, with the exception of those who do a large bottle business, have decided to charge the regular price, four cents for a pint. Milk in bottles, however, will probably be five cents a pint, the dealers saying that the extra work in putting the milk up in the bottles is worth an additional cent.

There will also be a slight advance in cream. In future coffee cream, or that used for general purposes, will retail at ten cents a half pint, eighteen cents a pint and thirty-five cents a quart. Cream for whipping purposes will retail at twelve cents a half pint, twenty cents a pint and forty cents a quart.

According to the dealers these prices will prevail for at least a year, and it is the opinion that the price of milk will never be any lower than at the present time.

FLOATING ALBERTA LOAN IN LONDON

London, Nov. 18.—The Financial Times this morning states that a $3,000,000 loan of the province of Alberta is being underwritten and a public issue will soon be made. The price at which the loan is a four per cent issue, will be offered in several instalments.

The Standard describes the issue as the precursor of several important loans of an imperial nature which will soon be floated in London.

MRS. MARGARET BRIDGES DIES OF BURNS; HUSBAND HAS SAD HOME COMING

With the assistance of her daughter, Mrs. Pauley, after succeeding in stamping some of the flames managed to have the injured woman carried downstairs and placed on a couch in her home. Doctor McAlpine was called but said there was little hope for her recovery. Her clothing had all been burned off, her hair singed and she was painfully burned about the body. Had it not been for the timely arrival of Mrs. Pauley she would likely have been dead within a few minutes.

She was taken to the hospital where she passed away about twelve o'clock. Mrs. Bridges is survived by her husband, for whom sincere sympathy will be extended. She was of estimable character, enjoying the esteem and regard of a host of friends, with all of whom she was a favorite, for her disposition and kindly spirit were such that to know her was to like her, and once she made friends she always retained them. The accident has caused keen regret amongst all who enjoyed her friendship or acquaintance.

HEAVY DAY IN THE MONTGOMERY POLICE COURT

Wedding of Miss Crandall and J. C. Stenhouse—The Case of a Bay

(Special to Times)

Montreal, N. B., Nov. 18.—There was an unusually large docket before Magistrate Stenhouse this morning in the police court, including five for drunkenness, three young fellows charged with stealing a quarter of lamb and eight pounds of butter from Gideon Steeves, of Cherryfield, and three boys charged with stealing brass from the I. C. B., and selling to junk dealers. There was also a C. T. A. case, in which Damien Bourgeois was fined $20 and costs.

This is an case of alleged theft of lamb and butter stolen over, owing to the complaint not being present. In the I. C. B. case the boys admitted taking the brass and said they sold it to two local junk dealers, who were also arrested. The case was adjourned till this afternoon. Miss Frances Ethel Crandall, daughter of Mrs. Gilbert Crandall, and John George Stenhouse, formerly of Dartmouth, but for some years a resident of Montreal, were married today by Rev. G. A. Lawson, at the bride's home at twelve o'clock. Chief of Police Ridout has a letter from the secretary of the Massachusetts Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children, stating that Judge Baker, of the juvenile court had recently before him a lad named Roy White, son of Frederic and Carrie White, formerly of the marriage. The communication stated that unless a home was provided for the child with relatives, he would be sent to the home for Destitute Catholic children or committed to the state board of charity. The name of Mrs. Barney DeMarlane, of the same place, is announced. The wedding is to be celebrated on November 20.

METHODIST MINISTERS At a meeting of the Methodist ministers this morning, Rev. J. L. Dawson gave a summary of his book, "A Race's Redemption," which was listened to with close attention and much enjoyed by all present.
