ALEXANDER WINS 11-INNING GAME

His Hit in the Final Frame Clinches It—The Majors Yesterday.

New York, April 30.—After the season's record of eight consecutive victories which began when they occupied seventh place, the New York Yankees, champions of the baseball universe, were passed into a tie for first place in the American League yesterday by the weather man.

The champion's contest at Philadelphia was one of four postponed by rain. Detroit, after holding the thin lead of one half game against the Yankees drive for several days, succumbed, six to four, to the steady fire of Pitcher Thurston of the White Sox.

Grover Alexander's versatility permitted the Cubs to beat Pittsburgh 2 to 1, and creep a half game closer to the leading Giants, whose game with Philadelphia was postponed by a washout at the Polo Grounds.

Alexander held the Pirates to eight hits and did not issue a pass in eleven innings. His double in the final frame drove home the winning run.

The first Boston American victory in 10 days was achieved over the protesting bodies of 18 Senators, including six pitchers, none of whom lasted longer than three innings. The Washington moundmen issued 15 passes and permitted 10 hits in the Red Sox 15 to 6 triumph.

Catcher Mike Gonzales, traded by Brooklyn to St. Louis as part payment for Milton Stock, won the Cincinnati nemesis in a 6 to 3 Cardinal victory. Mike's two doubles, the second coming off the bases jammed, drove in four runs.

Johnny Boston and Cleveland-St. Louis games were prevented by rain.

YEP, IT'S OLD NICK HIMSELF

What ham is to eggs—Burnt cork to Jolson—Sheets are to the Klan—And sugar daddies to Broadway flappers—

Mr. Nick Altrock is to baseball, only more so.

The game who run the American League would no more think of starting a new season without displaying the Washington burlesque of one of his comical moods than tearing out the turnstiles.

You see Mr. Altrock here as he appeared on opening day.

QUESTIONS.

- Can a player start as pitcher, be shifted to other positions in the game and then return to the pitching mound?
- Can a batter, after having struck out, start for the bench, and then, discovering the catcher has muffed the third strike, start for first?
- If a substitute enters the game without notifying the umpire of the umpire, what is his status?

ANSWERS.

- A player has such a right provided he is continued in the lineup.
- He has such a right, and not out of the game, as many think.
- If a substitute enters the game without announcing himself to the umpire, any play made by him at the bat or in the field is considered legal.

Olympic Games Affecting Prices

Paris, April 30.—The extent to which the influence of the forthcoming Olympic games is affecting those with itching palms is illustrated by the purchase of a Frenchman who was dining in a Montmartre restaurant.

Toward the end of the meal, the diner asked the waiter to light his cigar which was obligingly done. When the bill was presented at the end of the meal, the guest found this item: "Lighting cigar, 50 centimes."

WHEN RUTH PLAYS BALL WITH KIDS

Home Run King Fond of Sneaking Off to Sandlots With Urchins.

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor).

New York, April 29.—(United Press.) "He's beginning to grow up and he's in shape. You just watch him this year," Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, said when asked about the Babe's prospects for the 1924 season.

"Ruth always will be a boy at heart," he said. "He wouldn't be what he is if he had lost the enthusiasm, the temperance or the viewpoint of a youth. He's getting a sucker now about his future, and that is what I meant by saying that he is beginning to grow up."

Up until last year the Babe acted like a boy who didn't realize that the land of play was not permanent. He had plenty of money and he spent it all on friends who were eager to help him in the spending.

In the parlance of Broadway, he was a "check-grabber." He couldn't understand why he should not be permitted to pay all the freight and be a good fellow when he was on parties with the gang. He found himself broke, saw himself in the light of a sucker and quit it.

After he had fought Jack Dempsey in Shelby last summer and failed to get a cent for staying fifteen rounds with the world's champion, a friend remarked to Tom Gibbons that it was hard luck on him.

"It's not my bad luck," Gibbons replied, "it's bad luck for my wife and my three little boys. It would have been their money, not mine. I have enough to take care of myself, but it is my duty to provide for them."

The Babe didn't say anything like that last fall, but he did something that meant just as much. He was season closed he called Harry Heilmann, star Detroit outfielder, who had beaten him out for the American League batting championship.

"Take out the old papers, Harry, I want to buy some insurance."

"Gimme one for $20,000," Heilmann is an insurance salesman, and a good one, too. He drew out the application blank and Babe said: "Gimme one for $20,000."

As might be expected, he passed the physical examination and was accepted by the company for the full amount of the application.

When the policy had been turned over to him, the Babe let out a big sigh and said: "Now, I feel a whole lot better. There's sure to be something for the wife and little Dorothy when I leave."

"That, perhaps, was one of the demonstrations that Ruth gave his manager as the symptoms of growing up."

The Babe still retains his temperance, but as soon as he loses that he will be close to the end of his career. He is not the fiery, petulant Babe who jumped into the stand two years ago and ran out of the place the loud-mouthed rooster who called him a bum, but he is still the same old Babe who everything to heart and who broods when things are not going right.

In a season of the previous exhibition games with the Brooklyn Robins, he objected to a decision given by Umpire Clarence Rowland and he found that Rowland wagged one of his "out" tongues in the league. Rowland hurt the Babe's feelings, and he stalked all through the game like a schoolboy. He loafed in the field and coasted on the bases, but he succeeded in getting it all out of his system.

When the Babe used to get on one of his escapades, managers used to say that Miller Huggins was making a mistake when he did not work on him with a baseball bat. Huggins is one of the smallest men associated with the game and Babe is one of the biggest. The little manager would have had to use a bat if he wanted to carry out any of his "lessons" of well-known methods of discipline.

Huggins does a lot of thinking if he falls short of action and he knew that the Babe was full of temperance and that he had to get it out of his system some way. He figured that as long as the Babe had it he had better take it and let it settle down. He has now grown out of most of it.

Many of the ball players do not like Ruth, and many of the fans would rather cheer than cheer him, but there is something admirable about any man who will do for the kids what the Babe does.

Writers who travel with the club can tell hundreds of stories about the Babe's love for the kids. They can tell you how he used to drag in the hotel at sundown time after time when the club was on the road, and that it would be found out later that he had been out on a corner lot playing ball with a lot of boys.

They can tell you of the many times that Ruth was up and gone before the other players had eaten breakfast and that later they would learn that he had been out to some parochial school talking to the pupils.

They tell the story about the time that the father went to the hotel where the Babe was to tell him that his little boy was heartbroken because he had been waiting two months to see the Babe and that he had been taken down with pneumonia the day before his hero arrived. Babe grabbed a car and rode 35 miles to pay a visit to the sickbed of his little admirer.

The finest thing about Ruth is that he never whispers a word about doing these things. The information has to leak out from other sources, and when the Babe is asked about it, he blushes and stammers that: "I like kids and I'm for 'em all the time."

ROTARY GAINED IN MARITIMES

Gov. Spangler Gave Address of Interest at Fredericton Convention.

The Fredericton papers give a good deal of space to reports of the Rotary district conference, which opened yesterday morning in the Memorial Hall of Christchurch Cathedral. The attendance is about 100. The interior of the hall was decorated in blue and gold, the colors of Rotary International with the Rotary emblem prominent in the decorations. The Rotary spirit was observable at all times. Singing under the leadership of G. W. Brown of the local Rotary Club was a feature. Local Rotarians placed their cars at the disposal of the visitors.

Dr. Spangler's Address

Governor Spangler delivered an address on the spirit and objects of Rotary. "Rotary in the Maritimes," he said, "is a school for better understanding of your fellow-man," he summed up, "the sum of Rotarians, a blend to which contentment, should never have been a luncheon club, he pointed out, this feature being but a method towards the establishment of fellowship. Service and understanding are inseparable, he continued, fellowship being interdependent with understanding."

When he spoke of the Rotary in the building of a real Rotary club were: first, education; second, education; third, education; and more education. "Gimme one for $20,000," he said.

As might be expected, he passed the physical examination and was accepted by the company for the full amount of the application.

When the policy had been turned over to him, the Babe let out a big sigh and said: "Now, I feel a whole lot better. There's sure to be something for the wife and little Dorothy when I leave."

Genaro Faces Hard Opponent

Frank Genaro, twice conqueror of Pancho Villa and who is scheduled to meet the world's champion again in the near future in New York, will clash with the most formidable contender he ever faced when he tackles Tommy Ryan of McKeesport, Pa., at the Boston Arena, Friday night.

So far Genaro has been in the bout that he has demanded that Ryan make weight for the contest and post a forfeit of $500 with the Commercial poundage.

Ryan is one of the most feared little fellows in the game today. He is a dangerous hitter. He has been running up a string of knockout victories.

Genaro is a Canadian and so that he can go there in good physical condition and in shape to give their best, the tag day is being held. If they are selected to go over with Canada's Olympic athletes, their expenses will be paid from Montreal and back to the metropolis. It is a high honor these boys are striving to bring to St. John. Already, this city has furnished two athletes for the Olympics, Hilton Belyea and Charlie Gorman and we are almost sure of a third one, "Billy" Maynes, with a possibility of others. It only requires the 5 and 10 cent pieces of the "Man in the Street" to give these youngsters a chance. There is a real sporting appeal in Saturday's tag day and St. John always was noted for its good sports.

If "Billy" Maynes finally does make the Olympic grade, it will be the first time in the history of this city that it has been represented at the Olympic track sports. Maynes' injured foot has completely healed now and he is quietly getting into shape for the tests at Montreal. Dave Johnson, who finished ahead of Maynes at the Dominion 440 event last fall in September by scant inches after Maynes had been back a week, already has been selected for the team. Most of the officials who saw the finish, including P. J. Mulqueeny, chairman of the Canadian Olympic committee, were deeply impressed with the St. John boy's finishing powers.

WORKERS NEEDED FOR OLYMPIC TAG

Can Send Their Names to Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson or A. W. Covey.

Organization for the Olympic tag day to be held here on Saturday is proceeding rapidly under the convener-ship of Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson. There is room, however, for any volunteers, for any men, who want to see this over big in St. John. There is every likelihood of several St. John boys going to the final Olympic trials in upper Canada in June and so that they can go there in good physical condition and in shape to give their best, the tag day is being held. If they are selected to go over with Canada's Olympic athletes, their expenses will be paid from Montreal and back to the metropolis. It is a high honor these boys are striving to bring to St. John. ## TIMELY TIPS TO AMATEURS

SAYS HERMAN PILLETTE Pitcher, Detroit Americans.

To my way of thinking, the fast ball pitched at the knee is a twirler's greatest asset.

The low ball is the thing, particularly with the lively ball now in use in the majors.

Most batters will tell you that they dislike the low ball.

Umpires will tell you that the low ball is by far the hardest to judge.

Certainly that is conclusive proof of the value of the low ball.

Forty-two teams try to wait out a low ball pitcher, forcing him to come up.

What is where control comes in. If a pitcher has it, he can keep pumping them through at the knee.

Batters usually top a low ball, thereby having a tendency to ground weakly to the infield.

Work for control.

Valuable Race Horses Burned

Baltimore, Md., April 30.—Five valuable race horses, two yearlings and three work horses were burned here recently when fire destroyed the big barn of the farm of Louis McLae, Alameda of the city.

All the horses belonged to Mr. Merriam with exception of one and the owner of him is John Farrell of New York.

NURSES' BRIDGE IS FINE SUCCESS

More Than 400 Attend Enjoyable Function in Y. M. C. I. Last Night.

More than 400 people attended the bridge given last evening in the Young Men's Catholic Institute by the Nurses' Guild of the St. John Infirmary, assisted by the pupil nurses of the institution. The affair was an unequalled success and a good sum was realized for the fund being raised for a new wing to the infirmary.

The graduate nurses and the under-graduates were present in their uniforms and gave a delightful professional touch to the function. Miss Mary Doherty was general convener and she was assisted by the president of the alumnae, Miss Mary Downing, and Miss Marion Rogers; Laura Morrisey, Alice McManus, Katie Ryan, Florence Leonard, Winnifred Dowd, Mary McDonald, Grace Keohan, Laura Maroney, Kate McFadden, Nellie McCarthy, Mrs. Frank Frauley, Mrs. M. Delaney and others. Mrs. S. H. McDonald, J. R. Nugent, Edmund Loney and W. P. Broderick also assisted in the arrangements. A fine programme of music was rendered by the Y. M. C. I. orchestra.

The prize winners were as follows: Bridge—Ladies, Miss Rose Phillips and Mrs. Philip Grannan; gentlemen, Joseph K. Kennedy and Frank Byrnes; Forty-five—Ladies, Miss Helen McCarthy and Miss Nellie Carey; gentlemen, William McCarthy and H. Long.

Builders Say Restoration is Feasible—Story Might be Added.

That it would be quite feasible to restore the old court house and add another story by carrying a steel frame inside the walls, was the conclusion of a report submitted last evening to the buildings committee of the municipal council by J. A. Grant & Co., and was decided to recommend to the municipal council the restoration of the building, without any additions except a heating plant.

Warden Thornton, chairman of the committee, presided and others present were: Councillors Bullock, Fisher, Campbell, Simpson and Bowland and the county secretary, J. King Kelly, K. C.

The report of Mr. Grant was read by the warden. It stated that the walls were not damaged sufficiently to make them unsafe and they were still plumb and true. He suggested that the building be restored to its original condition and that a steel frame be constructed inside the walls to carry the floor and roof loads and this would also carry another story if it was decided to add one. He estimated the replacement value of the walls as they stood at $32,640.

Restoration Recommended.

After some discussion it was moved by Councillor Fisher and seconded by Councillor Campbell that the committee recommend to the municipal council the restoration of the building with no additions except a heating plant, and this carried.

It was also decided to lease the present quarters restored steel building for another year, rental not to exceed $1,800.

Before the meeting adjourned Warden Thornton and Councillor Fisher expressed their regret on leaving the council and thanked the members for support. They also extended thanks to the press for reports of the meetings. Councillors Campbell, Simpson and Bowland expressed regret at the retirement of the two members of the council.

HER CHILDREN HAD WHOOPING COUGH

This is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It starts with fever and cough. The cough is at first short and sharp, but gradually increases in severity and occurs in sudden spasms, vomiting follows, and sometimes there is nose bleed; the child is livid in the face, the eyes appear as if they would burst from their sockets, and suffocation seems imminent. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will relieve the cough and in a short time make it disappear.

Mrs. L. Ambrose, Sarala, Ont., writes: "My little ones were both sick with whooping cough. I read where Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was good, and I only used two bottles and they were better. I had chronic bronchitis for three years and had everything until, finally, I got Dr. Wood's. I would not be without this remedy."

Price 35c a bottle; large family size $1.00, put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TRAINING HARD FOR BIG MATCH

Stanislak Getting Into Shape for Championship Match With Lewis.

Stanley Stanislak, the Lion of Poland, is getting into remarkable shape for his championship match with Strangler Lewis at the Boston Arena Thursday evening, May 1.

He is doing his preliminary training at the Y. M. C. U., but plans to work out of doors the last week if the weather is a little warmer. As head of his training staff he has Professor Macketchum, an expert on physical culture, boxing and jiu-jitsu wrestling. In addition to Macketchum, Stanley's camp at present consists of Al Rizzo, the Italian heavyweight; Frank Yusko, the Lithuanian heavyweight; Frank Dutcher and one local boxer. The big Pole is taking a lot of boxing, as Lewis has been knocking out most of his toughest opponents this season.

Billy Sandow, manager of Lewis, wires that the champion has a match at Lexington, Ky., May 1, and will arrive in company with Mrs. Lewis on May 3. After a day of rest he will complete his training.

WILL HOLD BOUT IN VIENNA MAY 4

Rain Caused Postponement of Carpenter-Townley Go—Advance Sale Poor.

Vienna, April 30.—The fight between George Carpenter and Arthur Townley, the English light heavyweight boxer, which was to have taken place this week, has been postponed until Sunday afternoon, May 4. Uncertain weather conditions, following a heavy rainfall, which drenched the open air arena, were given as the cause for the postponement of the bout.

The advance sale of seats had been very poor. The management had hoped to take in six million crowns, or the equivalent of 1,400,000 francs. The gate receipts, however, promised nothing better than 500,000 francs. Frank Desamps had been promised 400,000 francs for the services of Carpenter and Paul Pitschke, the 1920 Antwerp Olympic featherweight champion, and two other boxers, who were to have shown their wares to the sporting public.

Carpenter and Townley officially weighed in for the bout and the postponement was bitterly opposed by Desamps, who, as the cause for the proposed fight between Carpenter and Gibbons in Michigan City on Decoration Day, desires to get away from Vienna as soon as possible. The Vienna burgomaster, who is the stakeholder, was obdurate and insisted that the bout be put off until next Sunday.
