SPECIAL SERMONS

Y. M. C. A. to Make Their Appeal to the Business Men this Evening.

At noon to-day a lunch was tendered them and the plans for the evening meeting were thoroughly discussed. Services were addressed yesterday in ten of the city churches by the visitors and the local Y. M. C. A. officials. Among the principal speakers were John Marvin Dean, pastor of the Baptist tabernacle in Seattle, and General Secretary Parsons, whose headquarters secretary Parsons, whose headquarters are at Minneapolis. The feature of the day was, however, Mr. Dean's address to men in the New Grand theatre yesterday afternoon. He was greeted by a large and enthusias-tic audience, and in the course of his remarks proved both that he was a master of men, and that he knew their weak spots in every particular. In the evening he spoke in Calvary Baptist church of his experiences in the Philip-Railway Company, extending from

The object of the gathering is to discuss the situation of the institution in this city and to consider from all standpoints the proposal to erect a new building.

In this connection stereopticon views of buildings, plans, etc., will be given, and the views of the local supporters will be thoroughly canvassed.

The Y. M. C. A. officials, who were in the city yesterday, and who spoke at the various services, have remained over, and will assist with their advice. At noon to-day a lunch was tendered them and the plans for the evening meeting were thoroughly discussed.
