Springhill, March 18 .- All the men are at work again today. The conference on Saturday resulted in the anment that at the beginning of next month, or early thereafter, the workmen engaged in the pits would work at the old time, namely full day's work, and thereby the cause for the disquietude and discontent would be removed. It is expected that the east slope will at that date be worked two full shifts daily.

Halifax, N. S., March 20.—Rev. Mr. Owers, Baptist minister of Onslow, who obtained notoriety on account of the charges made by his wife against him, is in the city. He comes from Massachusetts to clear himself of aspersions cast upon him. Mr. Owers states that he is prepared to prove that his wife is demented, and to show that his condition all through was simply that of a consistent Christian minister, whose usefulness was ruin-ed by the unbalanced state of his wife's mind, and the evil conduct of her sympathizers. He denounces the S. P. C. and those who have sided with his wife in this matter without waiting to hear his side of the story, which he claims will thoroughly exonerate his character.

The legislature was prorogued this afternoon with the usual formalities. Halifax, March 23.—Messrs. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is Recon mended by Rev. John Langtry, M. A., D. C. L., and also by His Curate, the Rev. W. R. Williams.

The kind words spoken of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder by that famous Episcopalian, the Rev. John Langtry, M. A., D. C. L., have already been recorded in these columns. He does not stand alone in the view exed of this famous medicine. The Rev. W. R. Williams, Mr. Langtry's associate in church work has also made use of the medicine, and quite willingly tells the benefit it has been to for cold in the head, and as a mean of giving relief in the case of catarrh. It is worthy of remark here that not alone have these two clergymen endorsed this medicine, but it has also received the endorsement of the Horrible Story Told by the Survivors of a Shipwreck.

Thirty Men Lost a Sea Only Two Lived to Tell the Ta e of an Awful Ride of Weeks on the Open Sea Without Food or Water.

Portland, Ore., March 15.—The following despatch was received tonight from Marshfield, Ore:: Daniel Clark and Thomas Moore, supposed to be the only survivors of a crew of 31 persons from the British ship Yoeman, arrived here last night on the schooner Leeds. The Yeoman went down on Feb 23 in lat. 34 north, ion. 45 west. She was bound from Antwerp to Redondo. Clark related the details of the loss of the ship and crew and his escape as follows:

"It was my watch on deck. The weather was perfectly calm, but I feared a heavy squall and began to showly surviver squall and began to shorten sail. I had ordered sail taken in, when a sudden squall struck us and the water became very rough. A heavy swell like that of a tidal wave, struck us, capsizing the ship. I was struck us,
