WAS REELECTED

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 1.—At a meeting tonight of Manchester Unity, Independent Order Oddfellows, in annual session here, the following officers were elected:

There was an excursion by steamer this afternoon and torchlight procession at night.

Detective Patrick Killen of the St. John police force was a conspleuous figure in today's festivities. The detective is over here on his holidays and has entered with heart into the social whirl of the Island province. He was naturally greatly interested in the showing made by the St. John men and was heard to express himself as being highly delighted. The detective, as made many friends among the people of Charlottetown, and all will be sorry to lose him when stern duty calls him back to St. John.

A disagreement occurred between the prisoner and Mr. Olcott on the Earle Reynolds. question of the line of defense to be adopted, the latter insisting on the plea of insanity, to which Thaw was plea of insanity, to which Thaw was unalterably opposed.

A day or two before his mother's arrival from Europe Thaw dismissed his counsel and placed his affairs in the hands of his personal attorney, Clifford W. Hartridge. Mrs. Thaw's first act on landing was to re-engage Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge. Since then Mrs Thaw has been unremitting in her efforts to persuade her son to asquiesce in her views and permit her to dictate his defense. In this she falled. This is taken to mean that his plea of "not guilty" will stand, and that "emotional insanity" and evidence going to show justification under the "unwritten law" will be relied upon to secure acquittal.

Since the golf club moved into their splendid new building there has been a steady increase in membership and the Scotch pastime is fast gaining in popularity in this city. During this season there have been forty or fifty new members added to the membership.

In September, the Maritime Golf Association will meet in this city and inter-provincial matches will be arranged. Teams of ten players on each side will take part and some interesting matches may be expected.
