LOCAL NEWS.

The police found the doors of three business establishments open last night.

H. Co., 62nd Fusiliers, Capt. Stupell, met at the Armoury tonight for return of clothing, rifles, etc., and dine at White's later in the evening.

T. H. Hall, E. G. Nelson & Co., A. M. Gray and M. G. Ritchey, D. McArthur will close every evening except Saturdays at 6.30 o'clock until December 1st.

In the police court this morning Thomas Murray said the cause of his being intoxicated yesterday was that he was taking medicine for a cold. He was fined $1. Samuel Cook was fined $8 or two months jail, and Thos. Doherty $8 or one month.

Clifford McLatchey, C. E. is here from Montreal where he has been employed during the summer on the construction of the new $100,000 race track for running horses at Montreal. The contractors on the work were the Canadian White Company. Herman McLatchey, B. A., well known as a former newspaperman in this city and St. John, is also employed—Gleane.

Advices have been received from Ontario and Quebec stove manufacturers that they have advanced the prices on all stoves and ranges 5 per cent. This increased price, it is stated, does not at all represent the increased cost there has been in raw material, labor, etc., therefore further advances may be looked for. The stove makers in the Maritime Provinces have not as yet advanced their prices, but will likely also be compelled to do so.

The annual entertainment to the new girls, given by the old girls of Netherwood, took place on Saturday evening last. Never before have the old girls given a more successful and pleasant welcome to the new-comers of the school. After a very clever little "shadow play" the guests were entertained with dancing and a dainty supper was served in one of the class rooms, which was charmingly decorated with autumn leaves, glass hags and colors. The evening closed with singing and hearty cheers for the new girls and also for the new teachers who were added to the staff this year.

The Globe ran into a bit of hard luck yesterday afternoon. Shortly before going to press the manhole top blew out of the boiler and the whole building was filled with steam. There were no serious results, but the paper was delayed about three hours. No time was lost by the managers in having a crew of men from the St. John Iron Works replace the ousted item of machinery, and before six the big Hoe press was rolling off the edition at a great rate. Mails were missed, but the city demand was met in good season, considering the seriousness of the breakdown.

HOTEL BELL BOY

CHARGED WITH THEFT

Arrested for Stealing a Scarf

Pin from Mrs. Krigbaum

Says He Found It in the Sweepings—He

Sold It to Get Money to Go to a Dance.

About 9.30 o'clock this morning Detective Killen arrested James Bryson, aged 19 years, on suspicion of stealing a scarf pin the property of F. A. Kingbaum, a commercial traveller.

The pin is a gold fox head with diamonds for eyes and is valued at $15. On August 30th, Mr. and Mrs. Kingbaum arrived at the Victoria Hotel, where young Bryson was a bell boy. They moved to the Dufferin Hotel on September 2nd and a couple of weeks ago, Mrs. Kingbaum, who says she last saw the pin in their Victoria Hotel room, notified Detective Killen that she believed it had been stolen. It was not until yesterday that the detective located the piece of jewellery and the arrest of Bryson followed.

The prisoner was taken before Magistrate Ritchie this morning and a preliminary hearing was commenced. The youth pleaded not guilty to theft and says that he found the pin among the sweepings in the hotel.

James McKenzie, a waiter in the Victoria Hotel, was the only witness this morning and testified that about three weeks ago Bryson showed the scarf pin to him and asked witness how much he would give for it. He wished to sell as he was going to a dance and was short of money. He said he found it in a room in the hotel. Witness said he would give 25 cents for the pin, but Bryson said he wanted 40 cents for it and the trade was made.

Witness kept possession of the pin until yesterday when at the request of Mr. Abbinette, the hotel manager, he gave it over to him. The witness said he only paid Bryson 25 cents on account and still owed 15 cents.

The prisoner was remanded to jail for three days when it is expected that Mr. Kingbaum will give evidence. The waiter McKenzie who purchased the pin, is about 30 years of age and the opinion is that when he learned from Bryson that the pin had been found in the hotel he should not have purchased it but have reported the find to the hotel office.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

A Private Recital in Miss

Lugin's Studio Last

Evening.

Given by Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Scovill—

A Fine Classical Programme

Splendidly Rendered.

Rarely is it given St. John people to enjoy such a musical treat as that provided last evening by Mrs. Fred. G. Spencer and Mrs. Kent Scovill at Miss Lugin's studio, Duke street.

The recital was a private one, and invitations were extended to some sixty or seventy friends. Such music is seldom heard, and it is a matter of regret that this is so.

The ladies selected for their programme from the works of three composers, Gregor, Liszt and Chopin, representative compositions calculated not only to enhance the pleasure of the audience but to convey a fair idea of the characteristics of each writer, and the result was a collection of gems, varied in style, and unique in arrangement. The programme was as follows:

Gregor—

Caraval.

The Princess.

Margaret's Cradle Song.

The Violet.

I Love Thee.

Sonata.

Liszt—

Phantasy No. 13.

Die Lorelei.

Consolation.

Thou Art so Like a Flower.

Dance of Gnomes.

Liebestraum.

Chopin—

Once More.

Over the Fresh, Green Fields.

Lullaby.

Pierette.

Mrs. Spencer was never heard to better advantage, and perhaps the most striking feature was her faultless interpretation of the varied compositions of Gregor's cradle song. She was at her best in the lullaby, and indeed it appeared that for compositions of this nature, for Liszt's tender swansong of Gregor's cradle song. She was at her best in the lullaby, and indeed it appeared that for compositions of this nature, for Liszt's tender swansong of Gregor's cradle song.

Mrs. Scovill has a technique that is all her own, a faculty of lending to any selection an interpretation which clearly brings out the idea of the composer, brilliant execution, and a thorough understanding of the instrument. Of her solos, Liszt's Liebestraum was the finest. It is a number which may be said to be a gem. It was perfectly rendered last evening. The Rhapsody with its delightful harp accompaniment, was familiar to all, but has, perhaps, never been so thoroughly enjoyed. The weird modulations of Gregor's Sonata, the rhythmic brilliancy of Chopin's Pierette, and the rippling melody of Liszt's Dance of the Gnomes, drew from the listeners many expressions of pleasure.

As encores Mrs. Spencer repeated the Lullaby, and Mrs. Scovill played an Impromptu by Chopin. The evening was a delightful one, and while it is a matter of regret that Mrs. Spencer will not be heard in St. John again for some time, yet there is a hope that Mrs. Scovill may be pleased to afford music lovers other such opportunities for enjoyment.

RECORD NUMBER OF PERSONS CONFIRMED

When His Lordship Bishop Casey returns to his palace at St. John at the end of this week he will have confirmed during this year a record number of candidates. It is expected that when the returns are all in they will show that fully two thousand candidates have been confirmed by His Lordship during the year, while the usual number ranges from 1,700 to 1,800 persons.

On Saturday evening His Lordship had finished a 135 mile drive about the upper ends of the county and left for St. John by C. P. R. at 9 p. m. The following figures show the number of candidates confirmed at the several churches which His Lordship visited last week on his trip through York county:

Fredericton 77

St. Marys 46

Stanley 27

Kingsclear 42

Allendale, 23

Cork 46

Total 257

This week His Lordship is to visit Queens and Sunbury counties and will probably hold services at Gagetown today, Petersburg on Tuesday and Oromocto on Wednesday. Very Rev. Father Chapman, V. G., will accompany His Lordship this week and will drive through from St. John to the Sunbury county churches and return to Gagetown.

DENY STORY OF SALE

OF CALVIN AUSTIN

It has been rumored about town for some little time that the Eastern Line Steamship Co. have been negotiating for the sale of the Calvin Austin, now that one of the new steamers has been completed. This is denied at the offices here and the statement is made that the Austin has been found in every way satisfactory for this route, that this steamer and the Governor Cobb will perform the St. John-Boston service until Christmas and that the Austin will, after that, be placed as usual on the Boston-Portland run. The Governor Cobb is expected to arrive here in about two weeks.

Rainproof Overcoats

For Men

It doesn't seem quite right to call these superbly shaped garments "Raincoats"—the name used so indiscriminately in connection with flimsy, ill-fitting coats, that it doesn't at all describe the smart dressy overcoats which we are selling in such quantities this fall.

We shall be glad to show you these Raincoats, whether you wish to buy or have just bought one elsewhere. We should like to have you know the difference between the usual clothing and 20th Century Brand—that means the next time you have clothing to buy, you will give us the opportunity to show you what we have to offer.
