Royal Grand Ranges

HAVE BEEN THOROUGHLY TESTED WITH THE TEST OF TIME. They are not a new creation—hundreds of these ranges have been in use for years, and all customers agree that they are perfect bakers with a small amount of fuel. Moreover, it is surprising the small amount of repairs that these ranges require, proving that nothing but the best grades of pig iron are used in their construction. Have you seen the Royal Grand? Prices no higher than many inferior stoves.

JUDGE FORBES AND W. H. TRUEMAN
HAD AN EXCITING TIME IN COURT.

Remarks Made by the Judge, Used in an Affidavit Caused the Trouble—Mr. Trueman Ordered Out of Court

There was an unusually lively time in county court chambers this morning when the case of the Petropoulos brothers was to have been taken up. Peter and Andrew were to have been brought down by Sheriff Ritchie, and proceedings were stayed by a rule secured by Mr. Trueman. The Petropoulos brothers were arrested on Nov. 14th on an execution issued out of the supreme court in equity for the recovery of costs directed to be paid by them under the decree of court. Being unable to pay they gave notice of disclosure under the act before Judge Forbes, on Saturday morning. When the disclosure proceedings were about to open W. H. Trueman, who appears for F. Williams, the defendant in the equity case, served Judge Forbes with a rule nisi granted by the Chief Justice for a writ of prohibition to prohibit Judge Forbes from in any way proceeding with the application for disclosure and from discharging the Petropoulos (as they are popularly called) from arrest, in the meantime staying all proceedings for disclosure. Mr. Trueman was served with a copy of the affidavit of Mr. Trueman upon which the rule nisi was granted. Upon the judge looking over this affidavit, the circus opened. It seems that after the service of the notice for disclosure, Mr. Trueman called upon Judge Forbes and entered into what the judge considered a friendly conversation, pointing out that the judge had no jurisdiction to hear the disclosure. The judge this morning gave his conversation with Mr. Trueman embodied in the affidavit upon which the Chief Justice's rule nisi was granted.

BRITISH PAPERS DISCUSS THE SELECTION OF AN AMBASSADOR

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Perhaps never before in the history of British journalism have American topics and news taken up so much space as at present. Just now the leading subject of discussion in the English press is the selection of a successor to Sir Mortimer Durand as British Ambassador at Washington, which is brought in under some form or other, in nearly all the comment upon imperial affairs. A New York editorial writer agrees with Sir Mortimer that Washington is the most important diplomatic post in the world. One of the principal weekly reviews, "The Outlook," makes this subject the leading feature of its issue, and gives up more than a page of it. The Outlook says the British Embassy at Washington has lost completely the political and social ascendancy it enjoyed under Lord Pauncefote. The blame for this is not Sir Mortimer's, who commands universal respect, but he was translated from a sphere where he filled with first class distinction to an environment where it was practically impossible for a diplomat of his traditions to become acclimatized. There has been no misunderstanding between the United States and Great Britain, but there has been some cessation of a complete understanding. What is now needed is a man who is little like a professional diplomat as can be imagined, resembling as nearly as possible an American representative such as Lowell, Choate and Reid who have been the "most effective ambassadors in the world because there has been no atmosphere of formalism or convention about them." Continuing, the Outlook says the place formerly occupied by the British Ambassador in Washington has been taken by Baron Speck von Sternberg, "who combines every advantage for the post."

The German ambassador is almost an Englishman. He was born in Yorkshire and might possibly have become a British subject at one time, and he swines our language as diplomatically as our own. His success has been as brilliant as the failure of the theatrical diplomat, like Count Cassini of Russia, has been dismal. Continuing the Outlook praises Jesurand, the French representative at Washington, whom it describes as a "More fascinating critic and historian of English letters than any other writer now living."

While lauding James Bryce's accomplishments, the paper says it believes his selection to fill the Washington post would be "Nothing less than a disaster at the present phase of Anglo-American relations" and calls for "A very unconventional appointment, in utter disregard of precedent." The paper says also "it would be an astonishing proof of national weakness if we are unable to find one ambassador at least able to make himself as popular with the Americans as all American ambassadors are with us."

Incidentally the Outlook declares that President Roosevelt's personality is a dominating influence upon the American nation and that Unit will remain dominant even if he is not chosen for a third term.

FATAL COLLISION ON AN ELECTRIC RAILROAD

One Woman Killed and Sixteen Hurt in a Smashup Near Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 24.—One woman was killed and sixteen other persons were injured today when an electric freight car crashed into the rear end of a suburban electric car near Birmingham, 18 miles from this city, on the Pontiac division of the Detroit Union Railway. The passengers car was a theatre car bound out to Pontiac from Detroit, and was well filled. It had stopped at the foot of a steep grade in front of the power house, when without warning the freight car also bound from Detroit, appeared over the crest of the grade and dropped down 300 feet in time as the passenger car with such force that it telescoped the car for two-thirds of its length. Miss Harriet Harmer of Pontiac was instantly killed. Physicians were summoned immediately and it took three hours to extricate the injured from the wreck and dress all their wounds. It is thought that all the injured will recover.

WAIT FOR THE PEOPLES VERDICT ON CARUSO

Paper in Rome Says the Popular Decision Will be the One of Importance.

ROME, Nov. 24.—The announcement that Senor Caruso, the tenor, was found guilty as a New York court yesterday of annoying women in the Central Park Zoological Gardens, and was fined ten dollars, reached Rome so late that only The Lessargo, of the morning papers, published the news. In so doing the paper neglected "Caruso will appeal, but the real verdict will be given by the people of New York in the manner in which they receive him the first time he appears before the audience after his condemnation."

COMB CAUGHT FIRE, HER HAIR BURNED

Mrs. Harry McDonald the Victim of a Painful Accident This Morning.

Mrs. Harry McDonald experienced a painful but fortunately not serious accident this morning. About 9:30 o'clock she was working about the kitchen stove in her home on the corner of Sheffield and Carmarthen streets, when the heat from the stove ignited a celluloid comb in her hair. In a second a space on the scalp about an inch and a half diameter was burned through the hair. Dr. E. A. Preston was summoned and rendered the necessary aid, while extremely painful Mrs. McDonald luckily escaped serious injury.

GOMES DOES NOT WANT AMERICAN PROTECTORATE

HAVANA, Nov. 24.—Jos. Miguel Gomez, who has arrived here from Santi Spiritus, his home town, to personally conduct the canvass of his nomination to the presidency of Cuba, said to the Associated Press correspondent that he disapproved strongly of the present propaganda in favor of an American protectorate over Cuba. He believes that such a submission by Cuba to the dictation of the United States would be deplorable, and he has supreme confidence in the ability of the Cuban people for self-government. He proposes to direct all his efforts toward the accomplishment of this end, believing that he will have the support of all patriotic Cubans.

BETTING IS EVEN.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 24.—The betting on the Yale-Harvard game here today is even. The early morning weather was chilly and the sky overcast. There has been no change made in the line-up of the two teams and the only doubtful place is that of right half-back on the Yale eleven. On account of the poor condition of Knox, Boone or Bonner, will start the game in that position.

VICE PRESIDENT GRAHAM JAILED ON GRIMINAL CHARGE

Accused of Uttering Flottious Paper in the Milwaukee Bank Case.

TO DEVELOP THE GROWING OF APPLES

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Chauncey Graham, vice-president of the Steel Ball Co., was arrested last night at his residence at Vanstone by Detectives of office of States Attorney Healey on a bench warrant issued by Judge Kersten, the charge being uttering a seditious paper. The accusation grows out of the Milwaukee state bank failure. The Steel Ball covers over the bank account of $200,000, and most of the notes it gave as security are considered worthless. Fitter, of the Milwaukee bank has been unable to find the makers, endorsers or guarantors of certain of these notes, and he does not believe they can be located. He thinks they are all fictitious.

MONCTON COUNCIL HAD AN ALL NIGHT SESSION

Lively Discussion Over the Loose Methods of Conducting Public Business—Scott Act Matters Again

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 24.—The city last night held a session which lasted until midnight and at which a great variety of matters were considered. The project of placing the police in the hands of a commission did not make any material advancement, the motion being voted down by the police committee and was presented to the council as a minority report. It was laid over for a month. Lights for the city streets received a good deal of attention and many alterations favored the incandescent system exclusively. A committee of three, Aids, Edgett, Welch and McLean, was appointed as the result of a motion that a committee of three be appointed by the mayor to take up with the city solicitor any application made by the telephone company for letters patent or additional letters patent, such committee to report at once to this council any such applications. The looseness with which city business is conducted was once more the subject of consideration, especially so in connection with the street department. A motion that Street Commissioner Howard Scott be dismissed was defeated and another motion to suspend him was disposed of in the same way. Much looseness was revealed in this department, the street commissioner in one instance having certified to receiving eighty bushels of oats when only sixty was turned over to the city. Officer Sherwood, who was temporarily suspended some time ago on the charge of being drunk was suspended for a month. The Scott Act was also considered, a motion being made that the police marshal and officers be instructed to close all bars and if they do not carry out such instructions to be dismissed in thirty days. The motion did not carry. The meeting was a lively one and was marked by a number of engagements between the aldermen. The ladies' class in the First Baptist church, taught by Mrs. Whitehouse, last evening remembered their teacher, presenting her with a handsome brooch and address. Rev. Mr. Whitehouse preaches his farewell sermon Sunday evening and leave shortly for Washington.

THIEVES MAKE HAUL WITH POLICEMAN BY

Carry off Handsome Iron and Copper Gate in Most Audacious Fashion

VIENNA, Nov. 24.—A theft was carried out with all the audacity of a "Koenigk Captain" in a suburb of Vienna last night. A very handsome gate and paling of hammered iron and copper has just been erected around a garden of a villa which is being built in the thirteenth district. Late last evening a cart, in which several working men sat, was driven up the street, and a driver asked a policeman to be directed to the villa. On arriving there the men woke up the watchman and informed him, with much grumbling, that they had been sent to take up and carry away the new gate and paling, and insisted on him helping them in the work. The men worked all through the night under the eye of the policeman, who had nothing better to do than to watch them, and in the small hours of the morning they drove off with their booty. When the usual working men arrived a few hours later it came to light that no orders had been given for the removal of the paling. There is, so far, no trace of the thieves.

KEEP THE JEWS DOWN OR MASSACRES WILL FOLLOW

Reactionaries Threaten Violence if Any Further Freedom is Granted.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 24.—The threats of the reactionary parties that Jewish massacres will be organized if the rights of the Jews are enlarged are steadily becoming more definite. The central council of the league of the Russian people claiming to represent two hundred branches with thirty million members has issued a declaration disclaiming responsibility for the "outrages which may result from the just indignation produced by the enlargement of Jewish rights," and has published the text of two hundred despatches of protest sent to the Emperor from local organizations of which the following is a sample phrase: "It is dangerous further to test the gentleness and patience of the peaceful Russian population, which may be forced, in its defence against the Jews, to overstep the limits of law and order and resort to violence."

MILLIONS OF HERRINGS.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The total catch of herrings at Yarmouth to the end of last week was 1,559 tons, or 955,360 fish, an increase over the catch of last year to date of 2,031 tons. One boat earned $2,000 during the week.
