college library. His theme was a digest of the important subjects discussed at the recent international council of the Congregationalists at Boston, which he had attended. The two brass cannon presented to Acadia by the minister of militia have been spiked and mounted and placed in front of the college. They are quite an addition to the grounds. WOLFVILLE, Oct. 30.—The annual roll call of the Wolfville Baptist church took place on Monday evoning. This is the old-est Baptist church in the maritime prov-inces, having been organized 121 years ago with only ten memoers. It now has a mem-bership of over 450. During this time it has had five pastors—Theodore S. Harding, Dr. Stephen DeBlois, Dr. T. A. Higgins, Dr. Trotter and H. R. Hatch. After tea had been served, a large number responded Dr. Trotter and H. R. Hatch. After tan had been served, a large number responded to their names. Letters were read from members in different parts of the world, from India to the Sandwich Islands. Dea-con J. W. Barss not being able to attend, sent a letter, in which he presented some interesting nats. He joined this church 66 years ago, when Wolfville consisted of a very few houses and only one church. At the close, short addresses were given by the two ex-pasters, Dr. T. A. Higgins and Dr. Trotter, also Dr. Sawyer and Paster Hatch. Hatch.

The Symptoms of Disease of the Ears.

Deafness and ear troubles result from catarrh passing along the Eustachian tube that leads from the throat to the ear.

"Is your hearing failing?" "Are your ears dry and scaly?" "Do your ears discharge?" "Do your ears discharge?" "Do your ears itch and burn?" "Have you pain behind the ears?" "Is there a throbbing in the ears?" "Is there a buzzing sound heard?" "Do you have ringing in the ears?" "Are there crackling sounds heard?" "Is your hearing bad on cloudy dars?" "Do you have ear-ache occasionally?" "Are there sounds like steam escaping?" "When you blow your nose do the ears you?"

rack?" "Do noises in your ears keep you awake?" 'Hear better some days than others?" "Do you hear noises in ears?" "Is hearing worse when you have a cold?"

Answer the above questions, cut them out and send them to me. I will then write and tell you if your deafness is curable or not, and if curable, how much it will cost to restore your hearing. Remember, I do not take incurable cases. I want nobody's money unless I can do them good.

There never will be a treatment for Deat-ness that will cure all cases. Such a thing is ridiculous and impossible. There never will be a treatment that will cure every case of any disease. The treatment that cures the majority of cases of any diseased condition is a great boon and a godsend to men.

Nearly every case of deafness results from catarrh. Many, many are the patients afflicted with deafness that I have cured after they had tried ear specialists in vain, simply by curing the catarrh.

Until within a few years most of the diseases of the ear were pronounced incurable, and even today this belief is wide-spread. Fortunately there is an error, for nearly all the diseases of the ear are curable.

DROWNED AT INDIANTOWN.

Emory Drillon, steward of the schooner George E., lying at Stetson. Cutler & Co.'s mill at Indiantown, did not put in an apperance on Tuesday morning, and Capt. Barton naturally tecame very anxious. He telephoned o the police, thinking perhaps he had been arrested, but they were not able to give any information, and then he surmised that Drillon might have falen overboard while trying to get on board. Grapnels were procured, and in a very few minutes the body was brought to the surface by Officer George Garnett and Reuben Higgins. Drillon, who was about thirtyeight years of age, was on shore Monday evening, and was seen about the wharf at Indiantown at 10.30 o'clock. He was then somewhat under the influence of liquor. To get on the schooner he had to climb around the bow of the steamer May Queen, and it is presumed lost his balance and fell into the water. As no outcry was heard, it is supposed that he sank immediately and did not rise. Drillon was a native of Grand Lake, and his body, which now lies at his mother's residence, 16 Brook street, will be taken from there for the money which was owing to him. and then went upstairs and put on his good clothes. Coming down, he went to say "Good-by" to some of the other servants, and there he happened to run across the manager, who did not ecognize him in his black coat.

"Do you want a job ?" asked the manager. "Yes, sir," said Bill.

"Can you clean windows ?" "Yes, sir."

"You look a handy sort of a fellow. I only gave the last man $5, but I'll give you $7." "Thank you, sir," said Bill; and in half an hour he was back in the same old room-cleaning the windows this time, and not reading the paper.

BLAINE'S TEST.

(San Francisco Argonaut.) One of the applications for a consulate in Japan, while James G. Blaine was secretary of state, was the late Samuel Kimberley of Baltimore, who died in the service in Central America. After he had presented his credentials, Mr. Blaine said: "I should like to appoint you, Mr. Kimberley, but I have made it a rule to recommend no one who does not speak the language of the country to which he is sent. Do you speak Japanese?" "Cert-t-tainly, Mr. Blaine," stammered Mr. Kimberly, "a-a-sk me s-s-something in J-J-Japanese and I'll a-aanswer you." Mr. Blaine had not a word to say, but the Japanese post went to another men, all the same. and Kimberley went to Central Amburial today, Dr. Roberts having deerica. One day Kimberly met a young woman who threw her arms impulsively around his neck and kissed him. Seeing her mistake, she drew and angrily asked: "Aren't you Mr. Jones?" "N-no-no, madam," replied Kimberley, bowing; "I'm n-n-not, but I w-w-wish to thunder I w-w-was.'

WHY LADYSMITH WAS NAMED SO Ladysmith is called after the wife of Sir Harry Smith, formerly commanding general in South Africa. She was a Spanish girl, to whom the general gave protection when he was a subaltern in the Peninsular war, and who subsequently married him. Harrismith is named after her husband.

Resolutions of Sympathy with the British in South Africa. A very enthusiastic meeting of the Loyalist Society was held last evening at the rooms of St. George's Society, when the following resolution was rassed unanimously The members of the New Brunswick

Loyalist Society, composed of the descendants of those who fought and suffered for the unity of the empire, hereby express their sympathy with, and their loyal support of, those men who are defending the unity of the British empire in South Africa. And they are proud of the fact that in our own province, founded by our loyalist forefathers, and in other provinces of the dominion, volunteers have been found who have cheerfully offered their services for the maintenance of the rights of British subjects in the empire of our Queen, and for the extension of the blessings of the freedom and enlightened civilization. A most interesting paper was then read by the Rev. W. O. Raymond, giving memorable instances in the lives of the early loyalists who settled in this province. It was decided to hold at an early date a special meeting at which the reverend gentleman will read other papers of a similar description, and where all loyalist descendants will be invited to be present.
