Abraham Lincoln used to tell of a ride

he had once in his early days with a judge of his acquaintance. 'It was a rough road," said Lincoln, "and presently the road," said Lincolo, "and presently the i wagon struck a stump on one side of the road; then it hopped off to the other. I looked out and saw the driver was jerking i from side to side in his seat, so I said, " 'Judge, I think your cachman has been taking a drop too much this morning." Well, I declare, Lincoln,' said he, 'I should not much wonder if you are right, for he has nearly upset me half a dozen times since starting.' So putting his head out ot the window he shouted, 'Why, you internal scoundel, you are drunk i' Upon which, pulling up his horses and turning in around with great gravity, the coachman aid, 'Bedad, but that's the first rightful decision your honor has given for the last 'Xwelve months!"

And now they have brought out the new "Eudora." The Henriettas steemed per-fection. But with the Priestleys it is ever onward. The "Eudora" has a softness, a richness, all its own. It has extra width and weight, it fits beautifully, and gives long service, while the glow upon its urface, gives it the character which ladies 'Ike.
