Vote FOR Prohibition TODAY

Election Information

The Act in Brief

The present Prohibition Act legislates against the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, and only allows it for manufacturing, sacramental and medicinal purposes.

The Act also provides for enforcement of the law and penalties for violation.

This Act was a war-time measure and the Government now wish to know from the electors whether they want Prohibition or not.

We Know Its Faults

The Act is weak in that it allows too much latitude in the case of doctors, druggists and vendors who have practically the dispensing of liquors within their own hands.

Further Legislation Depends on You

Application has already been made by the Temperance people to have the Act amended in regard to the recognized weaknesses and the Government is sympathetic — But Note This — the Government put off the granting of these improvements to make the Act more effective until the result of this election proves that the people want Prohibition, and by the majority of the vote the Government will know just how badly the Electors do want it.

Your Vote

at this Election may have very important influence on the future action of the Government.

Are You Aware of This?

In 1919 an Act Passed the House, providing that the Government shall take over the entire liquor business within the province, for the three purposes contained in the Act, and also giving them more stringent control over the sale of extracts, essences and tinctures — But Mark You, the Government has refused to take action on this amendment until the voice of the people has been heard at the coming election.

Stop Importation Our Next Move

Authority to Prevent the Importation of Liquor into the Province does not rest with the Provincial, but with our Dominion Government, which has already stated that a vote may be taken on the question in New Brunswick, on the recommendation of the Legislature. If the result at the coming election satisfies them that the people actually want Prohibition — we are sure to get it.

WHAT YOUR BALLOT CAN DO TODAY

FIRST — Provide the way for necessary Amendments to the Act that will make it really effective.

SECOND — Show the Government that the people Demand Prohibition, and want the laws enforced.

THIRD — Hasten the election that can shut out the importation of liquor into the Province.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

St. John, N. B., 9th July, 1920.
To the Editor of The Standard:
Sir, — It seems to me to be a matter for the deepest regret that the public spirited citizens who are promoting the cause of prohibition in anticipation of the impending plebiscite should limit their endeavors to their present narrow bounds when there are so many other things besides wine and beer which might be prohibited. How much mental stress might these gentlemen avoid if, instead of endeavoring to find a Biblical justification for prohibition of liquor, they were to organize a campaign for the prohibition of profanity, for which their authority could be found in the ten commandments? How many poor human sufferers and victims of over zeal might they not save from ruin and disgrace should they succeed in obtaining legislation to prohibit lying? Consider the incalculable benefits of such a law at a time such as this when facts are distorted, truths suppressed and prominent citizens haled to the courts for libel.

I hesitate to suggest the prohibition of the manufacture of flavoring extracts, but merely mention in passing that it appears to have assumed the proportions of one of our most prosperous local industries and as such should be fostered and encouraged for the financial betterment of the community.

I feel called upon on this, the first occasion that I have broken into print during the present campaign, to express the intense degree of pleasure afforded to my aesthetic nature by the Prohibition Art Gallery appearing daily in the Press. This remarkable collection begins with a photograph of five children, concerning which legal proceedings have since been instituted, posing to a shocking likeness of Chief of Police Finley, concerning which, if the Chief possesses any personal vanity legal proceedings ought to be instituted, proceeds to a caricature of the Police Magistrate which, whatever the effect upon the feelings of the original (or should I say victim) offends the taste of every member of the community who is familiar with His Honors genial countenance and ends (I trust) this morning with a photograph of the man who says he prefers the bootlegger to the legally authorized dealer, namely none other than Chief Rideout. The worthy leader of the Moncton police force is quoted in the press from a communication to Mr. Donald Fraser in the following sapient words: "Much as the bootleggers are to be despised, still I am of the opinion that it is better for the sale of liquor to be confined to bootleggers than sold openly and given sanction of the law." As an ardent advocate of temperance I need hardly comment upon the depth of thought, wisdom and zeal for human welfare expressed in this profound utterance. I have heard that some of the licensed vendors are contributing to the Prohibition campaign fund. Surely no one will tell me that the honest, hardworking bootlegger has also been obliged to part with some of his earnings.

I have been deeply pained and grieved to observe that the liquor inspectors have so far perverted the obvious purpose of the Prohibition Act as to take steps resulting in several members of the executive of the Prohibition Committee being fined for violation of the Act. I may not be an abstemious myself, but I nevertheless feel that if I were on the executive of a teetotal society and were found guilty of breach of such a sacred law, I would withdraw at least temporarily from its ranks and cleared on appeal to a higher court. Alas, however, I momentarily overlooked the fact that the accused under the Prohibition Act has no appeal, hence some frantic application to the government, who have no authority to cross a T or dot an I in the Act. However let the lemon extract dealers stew in their own gravy.

Yours, etc.,
IN VINO VERITAS.

St. John, July 9.
To the Editor of The Standard:
Dear Sir, — One of the chief topics of conversation on the streets today was the astounding statement of Chief Rideout, of the Moncton police force, whose cut and remarks regarding the "Prohibition Act" appeared in the morning papers as an advertisement of the "Prohibitionists." Here is what the officer of the law says, a man whose oath of office requires him to uphold and defend law and order: "Much as the bootleggers are to be despised, still I am of the opinion that it is better for the sale of liquor to be confined to bootleggers than sold openly and given sanction of the law." Mr. Rideout speaks with considerable authority, and his experience of many years suggests respect for his opinion in this matter — Ad.

Was there ever a more flagrant violation of true citizenship than this? Was there ever a more damaging statement made against "Prohibition"? This is just my reason, and the reason of thousands of others for voting against such an iniquitous act. The death rate in this province as the result of the blood sucking bootlegger since "Prohibition" now numbers nearly twenty, nearly twenty murders, the result of the bootleggers' wood alcohol concoctions. What do the mothers of growing families think of this? The St. John Globe, while publishing as an advertisement tonight the cut of this marvelous gentleman omits the above damning statement. I presume these "Prohibitionists" have at last seen the error of their low down fanatical campaign. I respectfully submit to the Moncton Police Commission, for action, a statement so un-British and so un-Christian. In the name of Heaven let us respect the laws of our land or abolish them.

Yours truly,
DECENCY.

We have received a somewhat lengthy communication from a correspondent at Welsford, but owing to the lateness of its arrival and the press of other matters on our space today, we are obliged to omit it. We would have been compelled to omit certain portions of it in any event, as we are unable to decipher some words without which no sense could have been made of the sentences in which they occur. — Ed.

To the Editor of the St. John Standard.

Would you please give space in your valuable paper for the following:

To the G. W. V. A. Members,
Comrades: — The Rev. Com. Kuhring, at our last monthly meeting, has threatened to do all in his power to destroy and disband our association and take our home away from us.

The aims and objects of the association is to protect and look after the widows and orphans of our fallen comrades.

While Com. Kuhring can see his side of the question, other members see the opposite and it lays in the near future to see which side is right.

If the Com. Kuhring seems so bitter towards the question that made him resign and threaten our home, why does not Com. Kuhring tell the Rev. Marshall, or the chief inspector and let them deny the charges made against them that same evening.

It lays with you comrades now, come forward quickly, pay your dues, and let us hold our home together in spite of this threat.

COOM. W. G. PINK.
Fairville, N. B.

Yours, etc.,
F. C. BRADLEIGH.

Mr. Editor,
I notice in this afternoon's Globe that Magistrate Ritchie, speaking of the evils to be found in the city, declared that women were worse than drunk in St. John. How would it be to hold a plebiscite to decide whether we should do away with them? It seems to be the logical thing to do under present circumstances.

Yours,
ADAM.

North End, Friday evening.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Caroline McLeod.

The death of Mrs. Caroline McLeod occurred in the St. John Infirmary at an early hour yesterday morning, after a brief illness, following a paralytic stroke, on Saturday last. Mrs. McLeod, who was in the 68th year of her age, had not been in the best of health for some time, but the sudden illness which terminated in her death came as a great shock to her family. Of a self-sacrificing nature she lived for her children and will be sincerely mourned. She is survived by three sons and three daughters. The sons are Malcolm, New Hampshire, and George and William, of this city, and the daughters, Mrs. Mabel Duffy, Boston; Mrs. George A. Dickson of this city, and Mrs. Wm. Blewett, Montreal. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from the home of Mrs. Dickson, 109 Germain street, interment at Cedar Hill.
