Considerable journalistic enterprise has been exhibited by the publisher, who has had extensive research made both in the British Museum, London, England, and the Biblioteque Nationals, in Paris, under the supervision of Victor Hugo Paltsits, of the Lennox Library, New York, for data regarding the authenticity of exist-ing portraits of de Monts and Champlain, six of which are reproduced in full page size. This topic is ably dealt with by Mr. Paltsits. A special correspondent was sent to

This is the first publication in America to present to its readers a sketch of the monument erected to this great Frenchman at his native place by his fellow countrymen. Professor Ganong contributes an ex-haustive article upon the voyage of Cham-plain, during which the discovery and naming of the St. John river took place. The pages relating to Champlain's experi-ences in Acadian waters are reproduced by the photo-engraving process, from its original work, published in Paris in 1613. This work is now extremely rare, so that the reproduction will be valuable to the linguist and the historian.

Messrs. Pugsley and Taylor decided to award the sum of $2,300. The city's arbi-trator declared this was excessive, and when the report came before the council Ald. Baxter moved that it be referred back, as Mr. Armstrong was preparing a memoranum on the subject. The motion passed, and the question went back, with the result that the treasury board has de-cided to recommend payment of the bill. In addition to the award of $2,300 to Mr. Abell, each of the three arbitrators gets $155, and the recorder's bill is $263, and the stenographer's bill $209.50. This and the stenographer's bill $209.50. This makes the total cost $937.50, or, with the award, a bill of $3,237.50 to be paid by the
