

Vacation Work.

Vacation work must be handed in on or before October 3rd, 1898, otherwise it will not be counted.

Vacation notes must be on construction only, and consist of not less than twenty, nor more than thirty pages. The sketches must be free-hand pencil drawings and figured dimensions.

Theses must be written on ordinary foolscap, and consist of not less than twenty, nor more than thirty pages.

The minimum percentage of marks required for practical work must be made in the case of vacation notes and theses.

No notes, whether taken during the session or the vacation, will be counted unless made in the standard note books of the School.

Theses must be accompanied by carefully made drawings and illustrations separated from the text, and be bound between flat covers.

The sketches for the theses in the Architectural Course are to be made on one side of the sheet of a sketch book and mounted on cardboard or paper.

The Architectural students are advised to spend the vacation in architects' offices.

Supplemental Examinations, Etc.

A candidate below the standing of the third year, who has failed in one or two subjects, will be required to take supplemental examinations in such subjects.

In case a candidate has failed in both the written examinations and the practical work in a subject, it will be necessary for him to obtain the minimum percentage required for practical work in the written examinations, and do such extra practical work during the ensuing session as may be prescribed.

Should his failure have been in only the practical work of a subject, he will be required to take a supplemental written examination, and to do such extra practical work during the ensuing session as may be prescribed. If his failure has been in the written
