

property whatsoever, whether by devise, bequest, gift, grant, or other title or conveyance whatsoever, and the same or any part thereof to alienate, unless when held in trust for any special purpose, in the instrument creating which trust such alienation is forbidden; provided that the said Bishop of Montreal shall not have, hold, possess, or enjoy lands and tenements or real estate in virtue of this Act, for the uses and purposes of his said See, exceeding five thousand pounds in annual value at any time, and shall at all times when called upon so to do by the Governor of this province, render an account in writing of such property held by him under this Act, and of the income derived therefrom, and the means by which the same has been acquired.

10. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to confer any spiritual or ecclesiastical rights or jurisdiction upon either of the said bishops, or upon their successors, or other ecclesiastical person of the said Church.

11. And be it enacted, that except in so far as it may be otherwise ordered by any Act passed in the present Session, the Act passed in the sixth year of Her Majesty's reign, and intituled, "An Act to make Provision for the management of the Temporalities of the United Church of England and Ireland, in the Diocese of Quebec, in this province, and for other purposes therein mentioned," and all the provisions and enactments thereof, shall apply and shall be held to have applied, from the time when the letters patent aforesaid took effect, to each of the dioceses of Quebec and Montreal, respectively, and to the bishop of each of the said dioceses, as fully and effectually as before the said time they applied to the diocese of Quebec, as then constituted, and to the bishop thereof, anything in the nineteenth section, or in any other part of the said Act, to the contrary notwithstanding; and the words "The Bishop," or "The Bishop of the Diocese," in the said Act, shall be construed as meaning the Bishop of Quebec, or the Bishop of Montreal, as the case may be.

12. And be it enacted, that whenever in this Act the bishop of any diocese is mentioned, the successors of such bishop and the bishop administering such diocese shall be held to be also intended and included.

13. And be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect in any manner or way the rights of Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, or of any person or persons, or of any body politic or corporate, such only excepted as are herein mentioned and provided for.

14. And be it enacted, that this Act shall be a Public Act.
