Mande's Troops and Heavy Attacks Were Completely Repulsed.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The following official communication, dealing with the operations in Asiatic Turkey, was issued by the War Office Sunday evening:

"The southern portion of the Sannaiyat position captured in the first assault Thursday consisted of two lines of trenches on a frontage of 450 yards and to a depth of 100 yards. The Turks delivered six counterattacks, but, although one of them was temporarily successful, we secured and consolidated all our gains.

"On the afternoon of Thursday a further assault was launched against the Turkish first and second lines to the north, and in prolongation of those secured in the morning, and our whole objective was gained. Heavy Turkish counter-attacks temporarily retarded our progress, but we finally consolidated our gains, and at the end of the day the first two lines of, trenches on a front of 900 yards were firmly in our hands. "These operations, having drawn the enemy's attention in the direction of Sannaiyat, it appeared possible that a crossing of the Tigris might be effected at the Shumran bend. Therefore, just before daybreak Friday, the first covering parties were ferried across, followed at intervals throughout the day by other parties. These coverers firmly established themselves on the left bank, securing the landing and taking many prisoners. Immediately landings were secured and sufficient clearance was obtained, the construction of a bridge was commenced and completed in nine hours, and by nightfall the position on the left bank was secured and sonsolidated.

"The Turks offered stubborn resistance to our progress in the Shumran Peninsula, but, thanks to the efficient disposition and handling of our covering artillery and machine guns on the right bank, this resistance failed to stop our advance.

"Simultaneously with the crossing of the river the assault on the Sannaiyat position was resumed. The third and fourth Turkish lines of trenches were captured on a front of 1,050 yards.

"It is impossible

"It is impossible yet to give a full account of the operations, but the prisoners taken on Friday in the Shumran area numbered 11 officers and 533 men. Five machine guns weer also captured.
