

The Department of External Affairs announced today that delegates representing the Government of Jamaica and the Government of Canada met at the Jamaica Hilton Hotel from March 31 to April 3 to negotiate an Air Services Agreement.

The Jamaican delegation was led by the Honourable N.C. Lewis, Minister of Communications and Works and the Canadian delegation by the Honourable J.W. Pickersgill, President of the Canadian Transport Commission.

The leaders of both delegations initialled on April 3 the text of a proposed Air Services Agreement with the route schedule attached thereto which will be submitted to their respective governments for their approval.

Details of the Agreement will be released after both governments have considered and approved it.
