

VI. And be it enacted, That no Company to be formed under the provisions of this and the said in part recited Act shall be commenced until ten days after the Directors shall have served a written notice upon each ^{Company to notify municipal councillors before commencing work.} Municipal Councillor or at the dwelling-house of each Councillor, for any township through which such road shall be intended to pass.