

Principal praises staff and students

Friends and neighbours were saddened with the passing away of John Galbraith, Derry Rd. on Nov. 27. Mr. Galbraith, formerly a blacksmith, is survived by his wife Irene, seven children and 24 grandchildren.

The funeral took place Saturday, Nov. 30 with the interment at Riverside Cemetery. Rev. G. A. Cowper-Smith officiated.

★ ★ ★
Mrs. Marion MacDonald, Bonaventure dr., spent the Oct. 22 weekend in Pennsylvania visiting her grandchildren Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ludwig.

★ ★ ★
Best wishes for a speedy recovery go out to Mrs. Vimy Dolphin, who is in the hospital following surgery.

★ ★ ★
The Westwood Secondary School, located on the northwest corner of Morningstar dr. and Darcel rd., was officially opened Friday, Nov. 29. Among the platform guests, deputy reeve, Roy McMillan with greetings from the town of Mississauga and Mayor T. G. McCollum, "with wishes from the good old town of Port Credit."

Glen Grice, chairman for the evening, accented the value of the first high school in the community and the five new schools since 1964. Elwy Yost, well-known for his activities in radio and television, spoke on "Trends in Education."

META is working on a $340,000 yearly budget, producing 620 half hour programs. J. A. Gummow introduced the principal K. G. Teeter, who spoke highly of his staff and the "none hairy, none bearded" boys and girls and the intense effort of both in the past three months.

The band of the Applewood Heights Secondary School played under the direction of Miss Gail Mead.

★ ★ ★
Fourteen volunteers from the Westwood area are needed to care for the ice-skating rink. Call Fern Buss. 677-3276.

★ ★ ★
Open house was held at the Holy Cross Separate School Nov. 28. Parents toured the classrooms to admire the children's work while teachers were on hand to discuss the latest developments. Residents who donated money to MMRC (area) are entitled to a certificate. Six hundred documents are waiting at 3281 Michaud ave., Ridgewood subdivision. Please pick up the certificate at your earliest convenience.

nal approval for overnight trailer parking facilities in the Clairville area at Metro's northwest boundary.

★ ★ ★
The Malton Senior Citizen Club members will celebrate Christmas Friday, Dec. 13 at 8 p.m. in the Community Hall, Victory cres. Older residents

Mrs. Ella Archer 677-2308.

★ ★ ★
The 175 Mother's Auxiliary is celebrating Christmas with a party Monday, Dec. 16, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. W. J. Currie, 7500 Homeside Gardens. A hearty welcome to all the mothers of the 175 A and B Brownie Pack and the 175 Guide Company.

★ ★ ★
The DACAN Christmas party was held Saturday, Dec. 7 in the Colosseum of the CNE. Members of the Douglas Recreation Club and their families attended.

Betty Van Deemter
MALTON 677-2880

The Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority gave fi-are cordially invited to attend this informal get-together. For details call

Jolly old Santa, in this case Ed McGahey of Clarkson, and his helpers, Ben Zlot and Lord Athol Layton, Potentate of Rameses Shrine, check out Santa's "reindeer", an International tractor. The truck will pull the bandwagon and Santa in the Shriners parade Sat., Dec. 14.

SWIMMING POOL CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

- WATER LOUNGES
- FLOATER LOAFER
- GAMES
- TOYS

CHARGEX AVAILABLE

POOLMAN LIMITED 279-9811
1870 DUNDAS HWY. E. COOKSVILLE
OR YOUR LOCAL POOLMAN DEALER

Dear Friends:

Just a reminder about my Christmas specialties:

The finest dark fruit cake you ever tasted, expensive? Yes, but excellent! Marzipan, strudels, yule logs, special decorated cakes, butter, patty shells with French chicken Ragout. Butter meat rolls, little snacks for your parties, etc. Too numerous to mention.

Just come in, the display is ready, and taste before you buy!

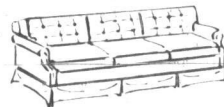

Sincerely yours,
Harry Van Setten

"The Nations Finest French Pastry Shop"

170 Lakeshore Road E. OAKVILLE 845-5912

DIRECT from the FACTORY to YOU

CUSTOM UPHOLSTERING
CUSTOM CHESTERFIELDS
CUSTOM DRAPERIES
CUSTOM CARPETING

1000's OF DRAPERY MATERIALS
100's OF UPHOLSTERY FABRICS
Carpets by....

BARRYMORE. CELANESE
CROSSLEY

FREE SHOP AT HOME SERVICE BY OUR OWN DECORATORS

Mississauga's Largest Upholsterers

WORK BY SKILLED CRAFTSMEN ONLY — ALL WORK PERFORMED IN OUR OWN SHOP — VISIT US ANY TIME

Cimor Interiors
LTD.

1938 Mattawa Ave.
Near Wharton Way
Mississauga

PHONE
279-9991
ANYTIME, DAY OR NIGHT