

Lionettes look ahead as year ends

The last regular meeting of Streetsville Lionettes was held in the form of a pot luck supper at the home of Marg Stewart. Twenty-nine members enjoyed many superb dishes.

President Audrey Rice thanked the executive and members for giving their full support during the past year. June Parker was installed in the club by Pat Cook and Helen Hember.

Reports of the various activities were given by each committee head and the records then turned over to the new heads for the coming year.

It was a proud moment for 10 charter members when they were presented with their six bar. These were: Ruth Bendrey Rice, Ginny Estey, Noreen Dowling, Auggen Carlson, Jean Honsberger, Marg Mitchell, Marg Stewart, Vera Durie and Ileen Welland.

Lion Harry Mitchell installed the new executive and committee heads for the coming year and gave a most inspiring talk. All those present felt proud to be a Lionette.

President Audrey Rice handed over her pin to new president Jean Honsberger.

The congregation of Streetsville United Church will welcome Dr. G. Keith McMillan as their new minister Thanksgiving Sunday, Oct. 13. Dr. McMillan is presently minister at Wellington Square United Church in Burlington.

Friends and school chums of Bradley Welland wish him a speedy recovery. Bradley fell over the weekend injuring his hip and underwent surgery at South Peel. He will be home soon but will have crutches for three months.

The lovely garden of Mrs. Clare Brocklebank was the scene of the pot luck luncheon of the WI last Thursday. Forty-five ladies enjoyed a delicious meal in the garden.

Following lunch a brief business meeting was held. Mrs. Brocklebank then showed slides of the centennial parade in Streetsville and various bus trips the WI has taken in the past. Mrs. Brocklebank also played several selections on the organ.

This was the last meeting of the group until fall and was a great success.

Thirty members of the Streetsville Senior Citizens club attended the Zone 13 picnic on Saturday at Hidden Valley Park, Aldershot.

Everyone enjoyed a box lunch at noon and words of welcome by Tom Bradley, zone president.

W. M. Fellows, first vice-president introduced Mayor Harrington of Burlington who spoke to the group. Rev. Preston who is the Chaplain of the Burlington Club also spoke.

Art Turner, recreation area supervisor, was introduced and handled the games efficiently. Peter Collins of the Streetsville club won the balloon blowing contest and Streetsville also conducted the mystery draw.

Mr. Anderson May of Streetsville took part in the mystery people contest as "Blondie." Everyone agreed it was a great day.

RHYME WITH REASON

Pierre
By B. MILLARD

*Pierre, Pierre, mon Premier cher—
With Gallic shrug and wispy hair—
You've charmed your way across the land,
Inspiring kiss and outstretched hand,
Instilling hope and faith, a sense
Of academic confidence . . .
Without so much as giving voice
To promised goodies. It's your choice
To shake the old establishment,
Or, settle down to malcontent.
As for the latter — you must know
That Dief and his successors show
A happy talent to foment
Procedural establishment;
And Tommy's waiting in the wings
To take a shot at other things.
So, turn your charmed charisma loose —
Before you kill the golden goose.*

—B. Millard.
