THE ROXBOROUGH
OTTAWA.

August 25, 1912.

My dear Sir Allen:

My heart ^{expressed} felt a great sadness when I read in the ^{a moment of} ~~morning~~ paper, of Deane's death. I cannot begin to express the sympathy I feel for you and Lady Aylesworth. Your grief must be great indeed. What would I not give to be able to assuage it in some measure!
