March 11th, 1935.

The Right Honourable Arthur Meighen, P.C., K.C.,
The Senate,
OTTAWA, Canada.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

Many thanks indeed for your letter with the two copies of your speech on Shakespeare which I have read aloud to my family to their great delight.

I have had at least half a dozen men ask me if the speech is to be printed and whether I could obtain copies. If you have some copies to spare I am sure I could distribute them to good advantage.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

P.
