Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of the 19th instant asking to be supplied with forms of Tender for the flour required for Treaty 4 and 7, I have to inform you that Tender forms were sent you in a registered parcel on the 28th ultimo.

The first supply of these forms has been exhausted but a further number are now being made and a copy will be sent to you probably on Thursday.

I am,

Gentlemen

Your obedient servant

R. D. Sinclair
