Ottawa, 1st March, 1919.

Sir,

I have acknowledged the receipt of your letter of the 25th ultimo, relating to the will of the late Mrs. Seymour Tenasco, and asking that the matter be dealt with and the will forwarded direct to you instead of through the Agent.

In reply, I am to say that the Department has the copy of a document, which you claimed was a copy of the will of the late Mrs. Seymour Tenasco, which document you took home with you from the Department. I can say that the Department has communicated with the Agent with a view to forward the original will with the necessary affidavits to the Department, as has to be done in all such cases. When this will is received it will be forwarded and when it is disposed of the decision of the Department will be forwarded to the Agent who will advise you.

Very truly and respectfully,
 your obedient servant,

J. David Cooker,
 Golden Lake,
 Ont.

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
