P. C. 608

- (c) to conduct investigations and studies necessary to the formulation of measures required to meet postwar problems, in co-operation with departments and agencies of government, the Committee on Reconstruction, the Advisory Committee on Demobilization and Rehabilitation, and such others as may be deemed desirable; and
- (d) to prepare reports and recommendations with regard to measures to deal with postwar problems.

5. The Committee may appoint sub-committees, consisting of such of its own members or other persons, to investigate and report upon any matter within the functions of the Committee.

6. The Committee shall have authority to obtain information regarding postwar planning and the preparation of postwar measures by any department or agency of government, and to assign to any department or agency of government responsibility for making investigations and preparing reports on postwar problems relating to the work of such department or agency.

7. Departments and agencies of government shall, at the request of the Committee, designate officials to assist the Committee, its sub-committees and staff in the performance of its functions.

8. The Committee shall be responsible to the President of the Privy Council and shall report to him or otherwise as he may direct.
