

Corp William Perkins	Would steal anything.
Pte Ted Fletcher D "Ukraine Joe"	Very self-centered. Would do almost anything to better himself.
S.M. "Jack" Cowie D Kingsley	A good sort of a man. I can't understand what he was doing in the Free Corps. Had been in the International Brigade in Spain.
Corp "Jack" Alexander	Heard he went to the B.F.C. from Graudez.
Pte Harry Symmonds D Davis	I believe he was tricked into the B.F.C. but cannot understand why he stayed. I twice warned him to leave.
Gnr Clifford Dowden	Tricked into the B.F.C. and left at the earliest opportunity.
Gnr Thomas Kipling	The same as for Dowden.
Pte - Clark	The same as for Dowden.
L/Corn Cyril Haines	An objectionable character, was thrown out of the B.F.C. on his arrival, as I have said in my statement. Said in front of me at Drownowitz that he tried to work with Gallagher and the others at Luckenwalde, but they would not have him. He also stated on several occasions he would go back to the B.F.C. if he had the opportunity.
Pte John Wilson	Was thrown out with Browning and Haines, as I have said. Later raised an objection over this.
Rfln - Van Heerden	Was tricked into the Corps and frightened out of it. Was anti-British, but pro-German.
Fug John Leigh D Jackson	Was a racketeer with not much. Was friendly with Brittain.
Pte Robert Chinchase	Came against his will, but immediately.
