

William Briggs'

Place and Power

By ELLEN THORNEYCROFT FOWLER

Author of "Concerning Isabel Carnaby,"
"Fuel of Fire," etc.

"The story is full of interest and attractive characterization; the main action of the plot is skillfully hidden until the right moment, and the dialogue is entertaining and clever."

"A story as brilliant as it is wholesome. Wit and satire flash in the dialogue, and the love scenes are delightful."—Evening Sun, New York.

"For months to come the story will be talked about by some millions of the population of the British Islands."—Literary World, London.

Illustrated.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

Bubbles We Buy

By ALICE JONES

Author of "The Night Hawk," etc.

A NEW story by a clever young Canadian author, daughter of the present Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia. This tale, one of absorbing interest, is founded on the law of heredity, having an element of mystery. The scenes are laid in Nova Scotia, the United States, England and the Continent.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

Thyra Varrick

By AMELIA E. BARR

Author of "Jan Vedder's Wife,"
"The Lion's Whelp," etc.

"A noble tale, charming in description, rich in coloring; a thrilling, absorbing, and winsome story."—Christian Nation.

"A stirring story. The skirl of Highland pipes is heard, and the flash of clan tartan and the gleam of rebel claymores lighten its pages. Who can help thrilling over such a tale?—so vital, so colorful. The reader who takes up 'Thyra Varrick' won't willingly put it down until he has read it to the last page."—St. Louis Republic.

Profusely illustrated.

Ornamental cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.