SALE: —Each adjudication of a lot at public auction is a separate contract, and, consequently, the presence of false bidders who bid on some of the lots offered does not affect the sale of a lot on which there was no false bid, unless the purchaser of such lot alleges and proves fraud on the part of the vendor and damage to himself by the enhancement of the price above the current value. (Do.).....	255
“ —Where a vendor tenders to the purchaser a deed differing in several unimportant particulars from the acknowledged conditions of sale, the Court may vary and reduce the conditions sought to be imposed, and may order a deed to be executed pursuant to the precise conditions of sale. (Liggett et al., appellants, and Tracey, respondent, Q. B.).....	313
“ —An adjudication at auction on conditions signed by the purchaser completes the sale as between the parties; and where there is a stipulation that a deed shall be executed within ten days after the sale by auction, the failure of the vendor to tender a deed before the expiration of the delay does not ipso facto resolve the deed. (Do.).....	313
“ —A stipulation in the conditions of sale by auction that the vendor shall be entitled to proceed to folle enchère if the purchaser makes default does not restrict the vendor's recourse to that remedy or exclude other actions. (Do.).....	313

SEIGNIORIAL COMMUTATION: —When it is really due, although not exigible , under the portion of the Act ch. 41 of the Cons. Stat. of L. C., having reference to the Seminary of St. Sulpice of Montreal, the person who owns the property during that period is liable to indemnify the person to whom he sells the property against such commutation; the payment whereof becomes exigible by reason of such sale. (Devlin vs. Morgan, C. of R.).....	132
SÉQUESTRE: —Pending the proceedings in an action to compel the execution of a deed of sale of an immovable, the plaintiff may obtain the appointment of a séquestre to receive the rents of the property, although the pleadings and evidence establish that the defendant had sold the property to another party prior to the service of the action, and was no longer in possession of the property, where there is reason to suspect that the sale to such other party was simulated. (Farmer vs. O'Neil, and Farmer, petitioner, S. C.).....	185
SERVITUDE: — Vide DRAIN.
SUBROGATION: —The subrogation in the hypothecary rights of a creditor, granted to the universal legatee of the debtor who pays his share of the hypothecary debt, cannot avail against the hypothecary rights of a subsequent hypothecary creditor whose hypothec has been duly registered. (Lafleur, appellant, and Bertrand, respondent, Q. B.).....	1
