International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow.

Jesus and Nicodemus—John 3, 1-15.

Golden Text—For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Nicodemus, a Pharisee, Ruler and Jewish Rabbi or Teacher, seeking light, comes with (caution or timidity) by night to our Lord, because he knows, he says, God is with Him. Jesus tells Nicodemus He must be born anew, (R. V.) born of water and the spirit, ere he can see the Kingdom of God, and to see this kingdom re-established every pious, patriotic Jew desired, but Jesus spoke of a spiritual and eternal one, while Nicodemus thought of a Jewish kingdom. A friend, a doctor, said, "I am a Baptist—hard shell at that—but from my practice as a physician I am persuaded a great many are mistaken in thinking the water spoken of in our lesson alludes to baptism by water; it teaches me our Lord was putting the two births, natural and spiritual, side by side, one to illustrate the other. What water does for the babe coming into this world, surrounding it, protecting it, and facilitating its deliverance into a new state of existence, so the Holy Spirit, the Water of Life, surrounds, protects and brings the believing child of God into a new spiritual life. When thus born of the Spirit, as men feel the power unseen of the wind, and breathing it gives them life, so God's child feels the power of the Holy Spirit and it gives him continued divine life as he lives and walks therein.

Fish cannot live out of water, birds cannot live in it; just so with a carnal and a spiritual man; what is life to one is death to the other. As Moses lifted up the brazen serpent and he that looked on it received a new life from God because he believed and looked as God commanded, so all who look to Calvary's Lamb and received Him, receive power to become sons of God and to serve Him also.

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.

Of course every one knew when they were engaged and even one pretended to be surprised when they heard it was suddenly broken off. It was first said she had broken it off, then that his heart had changed, but finally she confessed that she had been so irritable, so depressed and blue that she had fairly driven him away.

Her good looks were vanishing. She was getting thin, pale, and hollow-cheeked, with dark circles around her eyes. Suddenly all society was pleased again to hear of the engagement being renewed, and it was not long before a beautiful and radiant bride was taken to the altar. She had regained her good looks, her former happy disposition and strong nerve all through a secret friend gave her. A few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is what made two more lives happy and a radiant bride more beautiful than she had ever appeared before.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Fallacy of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Mrs. O. O. Scripture, of Prescott, Ariz., L. Box 536, writes: "For nearly two years I was a great sufferer with ulceration and enlargement of womb, also suffered severely with dyspepsia and was run down—a perfect wreck. I doctored for several years; got no better, until about seven months ago I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Pellets. I can stand on my feet and work hard all day. I feel that life is now worth living, and shall ever feel grateful to you and shall always recommend your medicines to all who are suffering in any way."

I then read in the paper about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and got a box of them. ## District Dashes

A pocket-book containing $100 in cash and several notes was taken from the pocket of the coat of J. A. McLean, of Rodney, which was left in his shop.—Dresden Standard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reaume, of Chatham, spent Thursday afternoon in the village. They attended the funeral of the late Miss Pelletier at Tilbury Tuesday morning. Deceased was a cousin of Mr. Reaume's.—Comber Herald.

Samuel Wallace, of Chatham Township, returned last week from West Kingston, Hastings County, where he was called owing to the death of his father, Arthur Wallace, aged 81 years. His death was caused by la grippe.—Dresden Times.

Patrik Burgoyne, of Tilbury, was seriously injured on Monday afternoon, while cutting timber in the bush of W. C. Crawford. A lumb from a falling tree struck him on the head, knocking him unconscious, and he was brought to his home here for medical aid.—Tilbury Times.

The Rev. S. G. Livingstone will preach the First Church, Chatham, on Sunday, Feb. 5th, on the occasion of the 15th anniversary of Rev. Mr. Nattress' ordination, on which day the Rev. A. H. MacGillivray of Chatham, will preach in St. Andrew's church here.—Amherstburg Echo.

Miss Della Pettier, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Pettier, Tilbury, died on Sunday after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, aged 27 years. The funeral took place from St. Francis' church on Tuesday morning, and was largely attended. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.—Tilbury Times.

Constable Brown, of Blenheim, was in town on Tuesday evening searching the Commercial Hotel, but failed to find anything that would contribute toward the snake fund. Evidently expecting to find it rather warm for him in the hotel Mr. Brown left his $40 fur coat in the right outside. After the hotel search the constable prepared to leave for home, but his fur coat was missing, and he was forced to drive home minus the coat.—Merlin Mirror.

Whilst paying his taxes in the sitting room of the hotel at Napier, James Brown had occasion to put back $25 into his pants pocket, while he counted out another roll to the collector, which was not quite enough, and putting his hand in his pocket he found his little roll was gone. There were several in the room at the time, some of whom were strangers, who were evidently watching their chance to make a haul.

The people at Conitright are much pleased over the fact that an engineer of the Pere Marquette Railway has been looking over the ground in the interests of the road. It is understood that the railway management contemplates building a one thousand foot dock there. Conitright is twenty miles below Sarnia on the St. Clair River, and a junction of the Pere Marquette and the St. Clair division of the Michigan Central Railways.

Mr. Theo. Ball, one of the oldest residents of Wallaceburg, died here on Monday night. He has lived alone for a number of years, and lately has kept a little store on the south end of Duncan street bridge. Deceased was fairly comfortable and owned several lots in town in addition to the property in which he lived. Deceased was about 84 years of age and of an eccentric turn. He lived an exceedingly retired life for many years. His death is supposed to have been caused by apoplexy as he was found lying on the floor of his dwelling, but conscious, and died during the night.—Wallaceburg Herald-Record.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Lucinda Brush was held on Friday afternoon last. The remains were taken to the Presbyterian church, where Rev. Thomas Nattress, assisted by Rev. E. A. Peat, conducted services and interment followed in Rose Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers were David Ireland, Capt. James Jarmin, E. W. Honnor, J. R. Menzies, John Healey and John Andersson. ## CAPTAINS ON MANY SEAS NEVER WITHOUT PE-RU-NA.

"Give Me My Compass and Pe-ru-na and I Will Steer Clear of All Wrecks."

Pe-ru-na Known and Praised on Land and Sea.

"A sick sailor is a pretty helpless man. I have found that Peruna will do more to restore me than any other medicine I know, and I have carried a couple of bottles on board for many seasons. Seven years ago Peruna cured me of bronchial trouble in a few weeks and gave me such new life and nerve force that I certainly believe in telling you of it."

"Give me my compass and Peruna and I will steer clear of wrecks of all kinds and land in port safe and well with vessel and men."—Capt. L. T. Carter, 123 10th Avenue, Pensacola, Florida.

Capt. E. A. Watson, M. B., 48 Elizabeth Street, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"Peruna has my heartiest endorsement. If there is any place that you are helpless when ill it is on board a steamer, at sea, miles away from any assistance. Sometimes two or three of my men would be sick at one time, and seriously cripple the force, but since we have learned of the value of Peruna, by taking a few doses they recuperate very quickly. We use it for colds, lung trouble and kidney diseases, and have also found it very fine for la grippe.

"Peruna is always one of the most important supplies of my steamer."—E. A. Watson.

With a bottle of Peruna aboard sailors have a remedy on which they can rely.

Commodore U. S. Navy, Commodore Somerville Nicholson, of the United States Navy, in a letter from 1537 R St., N. W., Washington, D. C., says:

"I unhesitatingly recommend Peruna to all persons suffering from catarrh."—S. Nicholson.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

A TOUCHING COMPOSITION.

A class of fourth form boys in an English school were set to write an essay on "Our Home Life," and, according to the Liverpool Post, one bright genius among them evolved the following touching composition:—"Our home life," he wrote, "is the life which we live while at home. We play with our brothers and sisters, endeavoring at all times to agree peaceably with them, which at some times is difficult to be done. Temptation sometimes tempts us to do what we ought not to do, such, for instance, as an example, to torment the poor cat, which is unkind, or to fill the bath with too much water until it overflows down the stairs, but we remember that by such acts as this we give pain to our fond progenitors and cause their gray heads to look grave with sorrow. Therefore, we refrain from so doing and run gladly into the garden, where joy awaits us in the shape of a snail, upon which we dance with delight. The nicest part of home life is meal-times, which we all enjoy, though the after effects are sometimes unpleasant."

NEGRO PHILOSOPHY.

On a cabbage patch owned by a negro in a South American community oil was found. Speculators offered the negro twenty thousand dollars which he accepted without waiting to consider another proposition, said to be forty thousand.

"How's this about your cabbage patch?" said a neighbor to the negro. "I understand you have sold it for twenty thousand dollars."

"Yaas, dat's true, boss, replied the negro. "Yo' see, men come pickin' round my place an' day say dar's oil nesh. Day say, 'We gib yo' twenty thousand dollars.' I say, 'All right.'"

"I am told if you had waited a day or two you might have sold it for forty thousand."

"Yaas, massa, dat mebbe so; but a bird in th' hand's th' nobles' wuk of God."
