—Complaints were made last season about the condition in which quantities of Canadian butter arrived in England. In boxes, style, packing, and general appearance, it was much inferior to the Australian product. This season marked improvements are noted, especially in the quality of the cheese, and during the coming season high prices are likely to be reached.

—The Railway Commission has ordered that the additional toll of 5 cents per hundredweight on all C.P.R. traffic which originated in the Eastern
