A novel suit, involving the sum of $60,000, has been brought in the Superior Court, Hull, Que., against the town of Masson, Que. The plaintiffs are the Lemez Shoe Company, who located in Masson upon the promise of the municipality to pay it a $30,000 bonus. A factory was installed, and operations started. When the company called upon the town to pay the $30,000 bonus, the money was not forthcoming, and the factory was forced to suspend operations. The building was unoccupied and no watchman was left to guard the place. In a few weeks the factory was burned, with all its contents, the fire originating from an unknown cause. The company holds that had the money been paid to it by the municipality the factory would not have shut down, and would not have been left unguarded.
