

C. M. B. A.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.
At a regular meeting of branch No. 2, C. M. B. A., St. Thomas, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas it has pleased the Almighty in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst, our late brother, John J. Kelly, Thence, he is recalled that while he lived in this world, he was a devoted member of the Divine will, we mourn the loss of one of our dear members, his wife and family and his affectionate friends and family, be it resolved that this association drapes the hall in mourning for the space of thirty days, as a mark of respect to our late brother.

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be presented to the family of our deceased brother, and that it be entered on the records of the Association, and published in the CATHOLIC RECORD, our official organ.

COMMITTEE.
W. J. JAMES, Chairman.
J. J. KELLY, Secretary.
M. L. KELLY, Treasurer.

FROM MONTREAL.
Notwithstanding the undecided weather, the second annual excursion of branch No. 2 of the C. M. B. A. yesterday to Lake St. Peter by the commodious steamer "Oswego," was a complete success and a most enjoyable affair. The boat left the wharf shortly after 9 a.m. with about 800 excursionists on board, all intent on having a pleasant day's outing, and they were not much disappointed. Owing to the weather, the decks of the steamer were not much patronized, but inside the shelter of the spacious cabin all was fun and merriment. Casey's excellent quadrille band was on board, and the lovers of the fantastic had every opportunity to enjoy themselves, which they did in a most hearty manner, dancing being freely indulged in. Vocal and instrumental music also did its share towards making the day pass pleasantly. Amongst those who contributed towards the pleasures of the day in this respect the following were prominent: Miss N. Wynne, Miss L. Murphy, the Misses McAndrews, Miss Kelly, and the Misses O'Shea, Mr. J. Carroll, Mr. J. O'Shea, Mr. L. Parker, Master Parland, and others. The sister societies were well represented, the following amongst others being present: Messrs. James J. Costigan, St. Patrick's T. A. and B. society; St. Ald. Kennedy, St. Ann's T. A. and B. society; Mr. O'Donnell, St. Mary's Young Men's society. The representatives of the sister societies and their ladies were entertained to dinner by the president of the association, Mr. T. J. Finn.

On nearing the city on the homeward trip Mr. Finn on behalf of the association made a short address, in the course of which he thanked those present for their patronage and the good order observed during the day. He also referred to the aims and objects of the association. Notwithstanding that it was only two years in existence in Montreal it was an old organization, having 300 branches in the United States and forty in Canada, with a total membership of 18,000. The main object of the organization was to provide for the families of deceased members. The family of each member received the sum of $5,000 on his decease. The organization also made every means to aid and advance the interests of members during their lifetime.

Mr. Dugald Macdonald also made a short address and moved a vote of thanks to the officers of the association on behalf of the excursionists. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. J. Costigan, which was carried unanimously.

The steamer reached the wharf at 10 p.m., when all departed for their homes well satisfied with the day's pleasure. The following committee had charge of the excursion and were deserving of every praise for the able manner in which all arrangements were carried out:

General—Mr. T. P. Tansey, chairman, and Mr. J. Maher, secretary.

Reception—Messrs. T. J. Finn, F. C. Lawlor, J. D. Quinn, W. Nicholson, O. O'Brien and J. Coffey.

Refreshments—Messrs. P. Doyle, P. McIlkenny and James Manning.

Dancing—J. J. Kane, J. F. F. Tansey, T. J. Foy, A. H. Hardy, and H. J. Ward.

At a regular meeting of Branch No. 2, C. M. B. A., held June 18th, it was moved by Mr. J. J. Costigan, which was seconded by Brother Dennis Duggan, that the resolutions received from Branch No. 30, of the C. M. B. A., Peterborough, be laid on the table, and that the secretary of Branch No. 2, forward a copy of said resolutions of Branch No. 22 to our official organ, the CATHOLIC RECORD, for publication.

Yours fraternally,
JAMES RELIANT,
June 18th, 1925.

To the C. M. B. A. Column of the Record:
DEAR BROTHERS:—The opening of divine worship of a cathedral is a circumstance which, in the natural order of ecclesiastical progress, cannot often take place. It is then on account of this rarity that hundreds of Catholics from all parts of this diocese assembled in London, on Sunday, the 28th inst., to witness the beautiful ceremony of blessing the new cathedral. It was a rare opportunity for the C. M. B. A. to assemble in large numbers, and make one of those displays of their strength which they find but few fitting occasions to do. Saturday's gathering of C. M. B. A. members was almost spontaneous, yet about 300 formed part of the escort of honor to the Bishop and clergy who took part in the imposing procession. I will venture to say that had the London Branch thought it worth while to have tendered a general invitation to all the branches in the diocese, double the actual number present would have been assembled with ease at least I do not fear that any such invitation had been formally made, and I know that Branch No. 20 would have been more than willing to have been there. However, it is a pity that so many of our brethren as there were coming together to do honor to so grand a ceremony and as worthy an occasion. The London Branch deserves the highest praise for their generous efforts to entertain their visiting brethren, which they did with a loving hand, and which was a worthy partook of their thoughtful bounty. More of these reunions among C. M. B. A. men would be of great service to the association in Canada.

Yours faithfully,
YOUNG W. DEANE,
Branch Centre, June 20th, 1925.

PRESENTATION TO FATHER DEVINE.

On Sunday morning last a number of the congregation of St. Fin church, Oseola, visited on Rev. Father Devine, parish priest, to present him with the following complimentary address, which was accompanied by a magnificent set of gold vestments.

REVEREND AND DEAR FATHER.—Will you kindly accept this set of gold vestments from us, on behalf of the congregation of this parish, as a small token of the esteem in which we hold you as our pastor, as well as for the reasons hereafter mentioned. Some eighteen months ago, when you assumed charge of this parish, our church property was encumbered to the extent of about $3,000. It was with pleasure we saw the energy with which you undertook to pay off that debt, and to-day we sincerely tender you, Rev. Father, our congratulations on the success achieved through your perseverance and good guidance. To-day we not only feel proud and happy because our church is clear of debt, but also because, through an enterprise engaged in by you lately, and one that cost you much labor, a far larger amount than our indebtedness on your arrival amongst us has been realized, and most of it from outside sources. To-day we feel proud and happy on account of the universal appreciation you won by the honorable manner in which you conducted your candidature for popularity, and we feel grateful for the good counsel you tendered us to act likewise, but over and above that we do appreciate and admire the self-sacrificing spirit which caused you to prefer the unpleasantness of defeat rather than that the least ill-feeling should arise between the respective parishes engaged in the friendly contest between yourself and your rival, Father Devine, parish priest of St. Fin church, Oseola. You may long be spared to preside over this parish, and to wear those vestments in honor at the altar. May we humbly request a memento at that solemn moment! Accept the pledge of our devotedness and be assured if ever the time comes when our communications should be severed we will always remember and look back with pleasure on the happy days spent under your paternal guidance.

Signed on behalf of the congregation:—Edward Tuffy, Patrick Hart, Edward Reynolds, James Reilly, John McIlkenny, John Sammon, Daniel Reilly, B. Lacy.

REPLY.
The congregation being assembled for high mass, Father Devine made a feeling reply in the church, in which he reviewed his labors since he took charge of this parish. He thanked the congregation for their gift, which was another evidence of the unity of sentiment and action which was characteristic of them at all times and which smoothed the way to success in every enterprise undertaken in the interest of the parish since his arrival amongst them. He exhorted the congregation that in their interest and for the glory of God gave him the greatest pleasure under those circumstances, and that he will ever cherish their kindness towards him with grateful remembrance and promised that as long as it will please God to give him grace and strength he would wear those beautiful vestments at the altar, he will not be unmindful of the spiritual interests of his first spiritual charge. Father Devine then having received authority from His Lordship the Bishop, proceeded to bless the vestments in the presence of the congregation, after which he rebled himself in them to celebrate mass, the day being the solemnity of the feast of St. John the Baptist.

Mr. H. P. Drought.

It is with genuine feelings of pleasure that we chronicle the marriage of Mr. H. P. Drought, Counsellor-at-law, of San Antonio, Texas, and son of Mr. Drought, of Stanley street, London. The wedding ceremony took place on the 8th ult. From the Daily Express of the 9th we take the following announcement of the marriage:

"Yesterday afternoon an interesting society event took place, by which Henry P. Drought, Esq., and Miss Ethel Tunstall were made husband and wife. The ceremony was performed by Father Maloney, of St. Mary's Church, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Florida Tunstall, on Oakland street, in the presence of relatives and a few family friends. All who have the pleasure of acquaintance with the bride can readily admit that it would be difficult to find a lady of more attractive and modest grace, while she has endeared herself to all by her lovely disposition, and well known qualities of head and heart. The groom is well known in this community as a lawyer. Ever since he began reading law here, a few years ago, his quiet, unobtrusive course has won general admiration. After the marriage within the house, a reception, to which the invitations were more general, was held from 4 until 6.30 o'clock. Choice refreshments were served in abundance, and the beautifully shaded groups surrounding the bride and groom were greeted by the presence of a distinguished company, who enjoyed each other's society and listened to the pleasing selections discoursed by the cavalry band. The happy couple were gracefully assisted in the ceremony by Miss Annie Simpson and Miss Lillian Lee, attended by Messrs. J. L. Humphreys and R. W. Lay. The present to the bride were numerous, choice, costly and useful. Mr. and Mrs. Drought left by the 7.15 train for Galveston, whence they will proceed by steamer to New York, and be absent in the east and Canada for the summer months.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN.

General Lord Wolsley is to have conferred on him the Knighthood of St. Patrick, rendered vacant by the death of Lord O'Hagan.

The duties in the Four Courts over the Ministerial crisis has been intense. It is needless to say that the White Paper is in a state of wild disappointment. Over a hundred of them, it is said, were sure of being appointed various business positions in the Ministry, to the east of the applications, testimonials, and certificates are in the queue; and now, owing to the action of those Parliamentaries, the dreadful prospect is opened up of the places for which they intrigued being all filled up by Tories. Attorney General Walker, who is not to be put to bed from the White Paper's point of view. He had fought and won an election for his employers; he had drugged and dodged for them for nearly two years in the House of Commons; and had just reached the topmost rung on the ladder to the bench when he fell, with the very black list under their feet. He is, however, for years, and meanwhile to be deprived of earning his bread on his circuit! The fortunate, and consequently, rejecting, members of the White Paper's fraternity, are just three in number—Mr. Nash, Lord Chancellor, with a right to a pension of £4,000 a year after a fortnight's service; Mr. Dodd, Green street, Crown Prosecutor; and Mr. Richard Adams, Revising barrister for Dublin. These three gentlemen had to use an expressive vulgarism, a close shave of it; to change the metaphor, as it is natural, every time they meet one another they reflect on this awful, yet pleasant truth, and chuckle inwardly, and poke one another playfully in the ribs!

King's County.
A convention of the Nationalists of the Tullamore Electoral Division of the King's County has been arranged to take place on an early date for the purpose of electing a Parliamentary representative. The central branch of the National League has been convened for the purpose of ascertaining whether the convention ought to embrace the two divisions of the county, or only one, the question having locally arisen if the county ought to select its representatives in common.

Meath.
Lord Howth is well known as a rack-renting landlord, but it appears he is improving his reputation by having his name enrolled on the very long and black list of the R. I. C., who, in his own property, and in the county Westmeath, and it appears he is issuing writs for the unpunctual payments of a year's rent, including a hanging gallop.

Longford.
On June 8, a young girl was coming up the street of Longford, with a bag under her arm, when she attracted the attention of one of the R. I. C., who, being of an inquisitive disposition, determined to see if the Sunday Closing Act was being violated. Accordingly he stopped the servant, and demanded to know what she had under her arm. She refused to tell him, and he made no free as to attempt to force her to do so. She then called a taxi, for the girl suddenly dashed the contents over the bold constable, whitewashing him from head to foot with buttermilk.

York.
The resignation of the Ministry and the coming election campaign has already led to much speculation as to the probable candidate for the (Malvern) division of the county, it being generally stated that Mr. O'Brien has signified his intention of contesting some northern county division. It is currently rumored that the Nationalists will put forward Mr. Coroner John Sandfield Casey.

Kerry.
The Killarney Town Commissioners are preparing to dispute with Lord Kenilworth the title to possession of the Fair Hill, near the town. The case will come on for hearing before the courts in Dublin in a few days.

Limerick.
One of the curates of Rathkeale parish, the Rev. Michael Potter, died on June 7, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Michael O'Shaughnessy, Kilmartin, Co. Limerick, after a short illness. The rev. deceased was about sixteen years in the sacred ministry. He was a student of the Irish College of Rome, where he was ordained, and his first mission was to Couleppas, but he spent the greater part of his time in the Church in Rathkeale parish. He will be interred near the grave of his uncle, the late Rev. Michl McMahon, P. P.

Clare.
It is stated that Mr. J. Walsh, Chairman of the Kildare Board of Guardians, will stand as the National candidate for East Clare at the next election.

As at the last Quarter Sessions, the County Court Judge of Clare, Mr. C. Kelly, C. J., again witnessed, on June 11th, the peaceful state of the western part of the county, in the fact of his having the grand and petty juries discharged unsworn, thus denoting the complete absence of any crime in the district. There was a charge of forgery against a woman, named Culligan, of Knock, but on the affidavit of the Crown Solicitor, the case was adjourned to the assizes at Ennis, where such cases must be tried.

The spirit of the people with regard to cases in which tenants have been unfairly treated by landlords was fully shown in the abortive attempt to sell the farm of Richard O'Donnell, a respectable farmer holding under the Stockpole family, on June 6, at Ennis. O'Donnell had been trying to pay a rent of £120, but in vain; so he entered the Land Court and got it reduced to £50. Mr. Stockpole, when the rent was fixed, instituted legal proceedings for the recovery of arrears at the old rent. O'Donnell's estate was seized and put up for sale, but no farmer would touch them, so they were bought in for the landlord. His farm was put up, but not a bid could be got, so the sale had to be adjourned. O'Donnell has been almost ruined with low rents, and he is prevented from buying the farm himself, save at the old rental. This is the way some landlords contrive to drive tenants and four through Acts of Parliament.

Antrim.

Mr. William Johnston, ex-Fishery Inspector, has been asked to contest South Belfast in the Conservative interest, and he has issued his address.

The National League is making good progress in Belfast. At the meeting on June 6, the Rev. P. Convery, Adam, St. Peter's, in the chair, most satisfactory reports were received from registration deputies in various districts of the town, and a large number of new members enrolled. The Rev. James O'Leary, P. P., Holywood, presided at the meeting at some length, pointing out that in electoral divisions where they could not return Parliamentaries, they could wield enormous influence. Father O'Leary, St. Patrick's, also addressed the meeting, which was of a most enthusiastic character.

The confusion increases daily in the "garious" circles in Belfast. The loyalists, having wholly lost their centre of gravity, appear to diverge in three different ways. The disciples of Kane and Johnston must have Orange candidates; the more democratic "phobias" forwarn of Mr. De Courcy and his "Labour" supporters; and the "respectable" Conservatives, like J. P. Corry, still maintain their right to the entire representation. In no instance has there been a more amusing, and indeed, instructive tangle in Belfast than this triangular tangle in Belfast.

Tyrone.
The Tyrone landlords are beginning to revert to what used to be a favorite custom. At present they are busily engaged sending around circulars amongst the tenants requesting them to make an early call at the office and have their judicial rack-rents cleared up without further notice.

Donegal.
A curious illustration of magisterial "impartiality" was exhibited recently at Raphoe, Donegal. It seems, that one evening, some weeks ago, a Catholic temperance band left the band-room, and was soon greeted at an excited Orange mob, one of whom fired off a revolver. The same mob assailed the police. But because the Catholics defended themselves, they were considered as the aggressors, and were brought before the magistrates, as well as nine Protestants. Five of the Catholics were proved to have been quiet and were discharged, but (what seems unjust) seven of those who defended themselves have been committed for trial. The leaders of the Protestants, who were also committed, were also committed, which was perfectly right. It seems hard that men are to be committed to the assizes for defending themselves against those who attacked them while endeavoring to enjoy innocent recreation. The policemen proved the Orangemen to have been in the wrong.

Derry.
Another eviction occurred at Drapers-town, the other day. The victim was in this case an old woman, named Thompson, Mrs. Robert McKelvey, J. P. Omeigh, being the landlord. As in most other instances of the kind, the tenant is in a destitute condition, and, as re-admission was refused, the miserable old creature can now have recourse to no more promising an abode than the workhouse.

Galway.
Mr. John Deasy, M. P., told a truth the other day, at Moylough, that cannot be taken too much to heart. He said:—The landlords are the feet of Glendora, appealing to give them the means to leave Ireland, bag and baggage. The people had the landlords in a vice, and they would be loath if they did not crush every spark of vitality out of them, politically speaking, for they were the accused set who for centuries have been the ruin of Ireland, and who, by their acts of infamy in which they have been protected by the English Government, had at length brought the retributive vengeance of heaven upon themselves.

Extreming landlords are obliged, under a penalty of £50, to notify evictions forty-eight hours previous to the date being carried out, to the relieving officer of the district in which the holding is situated. Mr. Handcock, it appears, did not do this in the case of Bridget Bourke; and the Tamm Guardians are about to proceed against him for the amount, provided he does not come to terms with the evicted tenants.

Resurrection.
Among the payments to be made at next Roscommon Assizes will be nearly £1,500 for extra police, which not even the magistrates of the county pretend is required.

Leitrim.
The prospects of agriculture in the North of Ireland are far from cheering. Everywhere one finds farming backward, owing to the unusual lateness of the season. The prices of cattle and produce of all kinds are ruinously remunerative.

HYMNICAL.
The marriage of Mr. Thomas Hollen, of Bothwell, to Agnes, third daughter of Patrick Kildes, Esq. of Fingal, was duly solemnized by the Rev. Father Flannery, assisted by the Rev. Father Gnam, at the church of the Holy Angels, St. Thomas, on the 2nd inst. Long before the hour appointed the church was well filled with friends. When the bridal party arrived the organ struck up the beautiful chords of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride wore a magnificent travelling suit of golden brown silk, and was waited on by her sister, Miss Mollie, who was attired in a similar costume. The appearance of the sisters was most beautiful, and left a lasting impression on the many friends present. The groom, a handsome and genial young man, was attended by W. R. Hickey, barrister, Bothwell, who performed his duties in a gentlemanly and business-like manner.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends, and amid showers of rice, they took their departure for the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast, together with a number of guests, awaited their arrival, and the display of the many elegant and costly presents was beautiful, the sight of which almost annihilated the weary young bride. Breakfast being disposed of and the farewells taken, the happy couple took their departure for the six o'clock p. m. train, M. C. R. R., on an extended tour west.

May happiness ever attend them on their journey through life.

TELEPHONE EXTENSION.—The Bell Telephone Co. announces the completion of a Trunk Line, east from Kingston as far as Prescott, connecting also Gananoque, Brockville and Maitland in Ontario, as well as Ogdensburg, Canton, Hamilton, Richville, Potsdam and other points in the State of New York. The Company has a large force of men at present engaged in building lines, and will be able to complete new extensions in many different directions shortly.

Mrs. Guilbert, the Archibishop of Paris, after a long illness, is restored to health, and has just resumed his duties, to the great delight of all who know him, whether as prelate or as a man of the world. A great many anecdotes have consequently been revived touching on his wit as well as on his liberality of thought and conduct. It may be remembered that during the Franco-Prussian war the Archibishop, who then resided at Tours, offered a home in his palace to M. Cremieux, the eminent Hebrew lawyer, and his wife, and they gratefully accepted it. When the subject of things was so altered that M. Cremieux could return to Paris, he took a most affectionate leave of his host, expressing the thanks of the "Jew" to the "good Christian," and saying: "Ah! monseigneur, ours is the reconciliation of the Old and New Testament. Henceforth they are one." "Pardon, M. Cremieux," replied the Archibishop, "a clever lawyer like you should not forget that the last testament annuls all previous ones. Ours alone holds good."
