The Truno Shooting Apprax.—The accounts as regards the late shooting affair in Truro are conflicting. Probably the following from the Truro "Sun" is the nearest to the truth:

"Last night at about 12 o'clock, a party of men, numbering as near as can be ascertained some thirty or forty, assembled on Victoria and Forrester streets, before the residence of Mr. McCam McCally, carrying gongs, horns, tin pans, iron kettles, &c., and put them to a use for which they were never intended. Amidst all this gong beating, horn blowing and tin pan drumming, some stones were thrown, passing through the windows of Mr. McCally's house. Mr. McC. and some of the family emerged from the house, and warned the rioters away. This request remained unnoticed, and a shot was fired from the vicinity of the house, and Mr. Simon Fraser was severely, if not dangerously wounded. This dispersed the browd, some of whom it is asserted, on their way home, threw large stones through the windows of Mr. Richard Craig's store. We are at a loss to account for the outrage, but Mr. Ca'g ascribes it to the action he has taken in regard to the liquor question, as he had received anonymous letters threatening violence. Of course the demonstrations in front of Mr. McColly's sentience are integrated as the received anonymous letters threatening violence. Of course the demonstrations in front of Mr. McCully's residence, are interpreted as the effect of his determined stand in regard to the effect of his determined stand in regard to the enforcement of the liquor law against the liquor dealers. On the other hand, it is stated that it was a serenade in honor of a marriage said to have taken place at Mr. McCully's house that evening. At any rate it is a scandalous and disgraceful thing, that men should so far forget themselves as to behave in such a senseless manner. We do not feel at the case for liquor than the case for liquor one of the liquor dealers. BESIDES the Condensed Beef prepared from the best parts of the animal, the prepartion contains Quinine, Peruvian Bark, and numerous herbs and roots grown for their tonic and health giving pro-

This is the only conceased Beef that does not require cooking or warming. It was especially manufactured under the direction of Baron Von Liebig, before the late France-Prussian war, for the German soldiers. Its tonic qualities are much greater than those found in any ordinary Specific or Appetiser, and its nutritive properties are sufficient to sustain the body without the addition of sold food. It is recommended by the Faculty in preference to anything else as the best reunedy for Consumption, General Debility, Loss of Appetite, Lowness of Spirits, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Lassitude, Fever, Ague, Cholera, all Female and Children's Maladies, Sick Headache, Thoroughly Renews the System.
