LONDON, June 11, p. m .- Prince Michael, reigning Prince of Servia, was assassinated in Belgrade yesterday. While walking through the public park, last evening, he was suddenly attacked by three assarsins armed with revolvers. He was accompanied by his cousin and a daughter of the latter, with his usual attendants. The assassins directed their fire promiscuously at the royal party. At the first shot the Prince fell and expired immediately. The cousin of the Prince was also hit and died; a few minutes afterwards his daughter received a severe flesh wound, but was not dangerously wounded. One or two of the valets were also wounded.
